

REGINA INTER-ZONE OUTDOOR SOCCER

12U, 15U, and 18U RULES

2025 Version
(11 versus 11 Soccer)

Introduction:

Regina Inter-zone Soccer encourages good sporting behaviours and team spirit. Cheering and praise of all players and their accomplishments are encouraged regardless of the team they are on. Booing, taunting, swearing or any other negative activity is not tolerated. Coaches, team officials, players, parents and team supporters are not to criticize game officials at any time and shall encourage good sporting behaviours towards all.

Regina Inter-zone Outdoor Soccer games will be played in accordance with the Laws of the Game as published by the Canadian Soccer Association and FIFA as adapted for our league and described below. These rules reflect as best they can the FIFA Laws of the Game 2024/25 for outdoor soccer. Changes approved by the IFAB for 2025/26 are also reflected in these rules.

We have developed these soccer rules so as to best interpret the intent and spirit of the game of soccer while taking into account the obvious limitations of smaller fields of play and the age of the participants. The purpose of our league is for fun and exercise, not winning. The emphasis during games is on player safety and involvement. Although there are elements of competition, we strive for a balance with team work, personal development and enjoyment of the game.

12U, 15U and 18U Age Groups

At the ages of 12 to 18 years old, the game continues with its emphasis on individual skill development and team development. Players are required to closely adhere to the FIFA rules of soccer.

The players are still expected to learn respect as part of the game, as well as more detailed actions, team strategies and communications, and general rules that make up the game of soccer.

Coaches are encouraged to try to advance their team as much as possible supporting the players as they learn the complexities of the game of soccer. Support to players as they build personal confidence and emotion control contributes to keeping players interested in playing the game and improving their skills.

The key aspects to this age group are that the players:

- continue to learn to socialize properly
- understand the importance of playing together as a team
- continue to practice fair play and good sporting behaviours
- learn to follow detailed instruction and team strategy
- learn the importance of positional play
- have fun in a structured game.

To this end, these rules are designed to advance the sport and infuse the need for respect on the field during any game ... towards officials, coaches, spectators, and the other players as well.

Law 1: The Field of Play:

1. Fields. The field sizes are dictated by the available City of Regina assigned fields. Games will be played on a rectangular-shaped athletic-sized field (approximately 100 metres by 55 metres). Metal Goal posts have been placed on these fields by the School Board or municipality. The field surface will be natural grass or a wholly artificial playing surface.

2. Flags. Flags will be used as corner markers, and centre markers. (3 flags per team required)
Flagposts must be at least 1.5m (5 feet) high, with a non-pointed top. The Flagposts are to be set at equal heights at both ends of the field and at Centre along the touchlines. Centre flags will be placed 1 metre outside the touchline.
3. Field Markings will be painted on the field to designate areas of the field (i.e. penalty area, goal area, halfway line, centre circle, touch lines and goal lines). TECHNICAL AREAS for teams will be marked on one side of field. The field of play will be defined by boundary lines. The two longer boundary lines are TOUCHLINES. The two shorter lines are GOAL LINES.

Field area measurements are from the outside of the lines as the lines are considered as part of the area they enclose. The Penalty mark is measured from the centre of the mark to the back edge of the goal line.

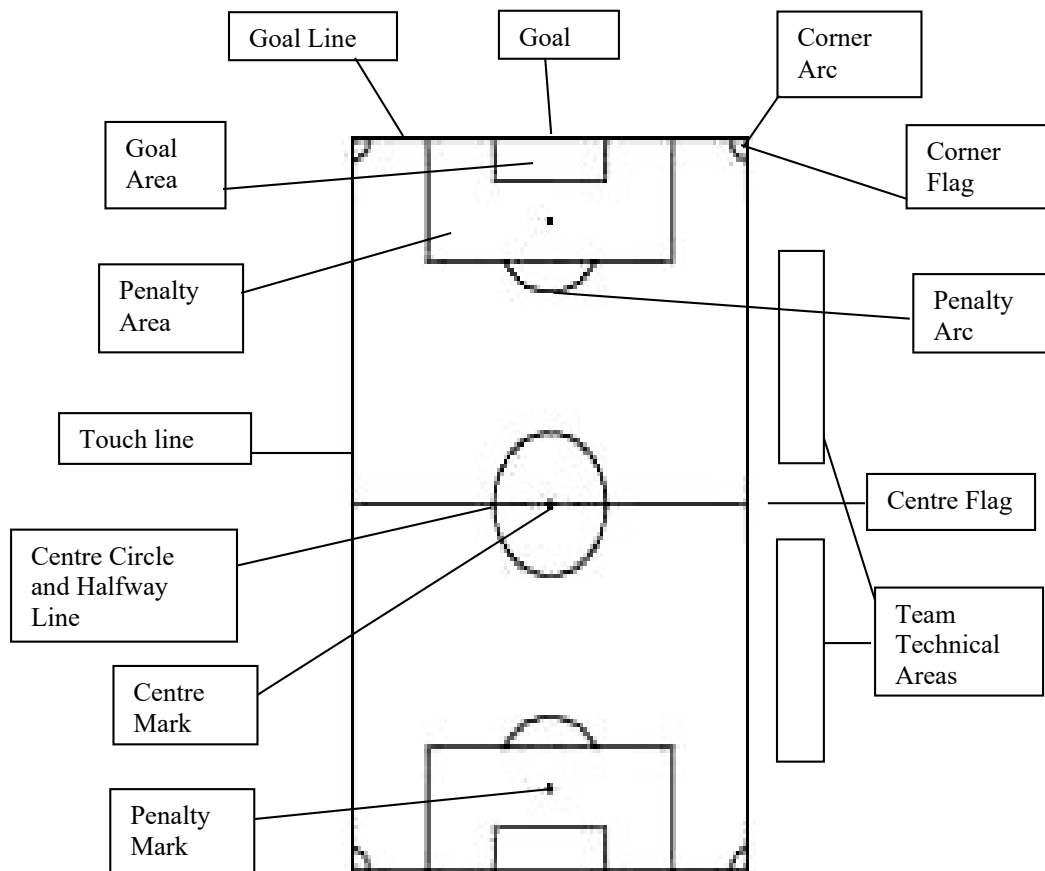

The field of play is divided into two halves by a HALFWAY LINE, which joins the midpoints of the two touchlines. The GOAL AREA is a rectangle centred on the goal line and containing the goal posts.

The PENALTY MARK is 11 metres from the goal line - directly in front of the centre of the goal.

The PENALTY AREA is a larger rectangle centred on the goal line and containing the goal area and the Penalty Mark. The PENALTY ARC is an arc of a circle with a radius of 9.15m (10 yards) from the centre of each penalty mark drawn outside the penalty area.

The CENTRE CIRCLE is located at mid-field and contains a Centre Mark located at the mid-point of the halfway line.

The lines that define the field of play belong to the areas of which they are boundaries (the lines are part of the areas they enclose).

4. Positioning on Field.

- No coach, team official or player may enter the field of play or stand behind either goal while the game is on, unless they have the referee's permission.
- Each team and their coaches will confine themselves to the technical area on their half of the field.
- The technical areas for the two teams will be positioned on the same side of the field.
- Spectators and team supporters will be positioned on the opposite side of the field from the players
- Coaches and their players are responsible for their spectators/team supporters.
- Referees and Other Match Officials can be positioned anywhere on or off the field of play as required to perform their duties.

5. Goals.

- A goal must be placed on the centre of each goal line.
- A goal consists of two vertical posts equidistant from the corner flagposts and joined at the top by a horizontal crossbar. The goalposts and crossbar must be made of approved material and must not be dangerous. The goalposts and crossbar of both goals must be the same shape, which must be square, rectangular, round, elliptical or a hybrid of these options.
- If the crossbar becomes displaced or broken, play is stopped until it has been repaired or replaced in position. Play is restarted with a dropped ball. If it cannot be repaired the match must be abandoned. A rope or any flexible or dangerous material may not replace the crossbar.

- Nets may be attached to the goals and the ground behind the goal; they must be properly supported and must not interfere with the goalkeeper.
 - Goals (including portable goals) must be firmly secured to the ground.
6. Technical Area. Team Technical or Bench Areas should be 10 metres from the halfway line to allow for keeping the teams apart from each other. Coaches should stay in their technical area so as to not wander onto the field of play or move along the sideline towards the penalty areas. Players must keep their personal items close to the technical area so as to not interfere with play or the movement of the game officials.

Law 2: The Ball:

1. Game ball. The game ball will be a league issued ball appropriate in size for the age group. A size 4 ball will be used for the 12U age group and a size 5 ball for the ages of 15 to 18 years.
2. Selection of Ball. The game ball is selected by the referee from those provided by the league to the teams, or from those that may be provided by the league to the referees. The selection is based on “best available” considerations.
3. Replacement of a defective ball. If the ball becomes defective:
 - play is stopped and
 - restarted with a dropped ball

If the ball becomes defective at a kick-off, goal kick, corner kick, free kick, penalty kick or throw-in, the restart is retaken.

If the ball becomes defective during a penalty kick or shootout penalties as it moves forward and before it touches a player, crossbar or goalposts the penalty kick is retaken.

If the ball becomes defective during a penalty kick as it moves forward and after it touches a player, crossbar or goalposts the ball is awarded to the keeper for a dropped ball, or if this occurs during a Penalty Shootout the ball is given to the next kicker in the shootout sequence.

The ball may not be changed during the match without the referee’s permission.

4. Additional balls. Additional balls which meet the requirements of Law 2 may be placed around the field of play and their use is under the referee’s control.

Law 3: The Players:

1. Number of Players. A match is played by two teams, each with a maximum of (11) eleven players; one must be the goalkeeper. Each team must have a minimum of (7) seven players for the game to commence or continue, however the opposition can field all 11 players, if they so choose.

If a team has fewer than seven players because one or more players has deliberately left the field of play, the referee is not obliged to stop play and the advantage may be played, but the match must not resume after the ball has gone out of play if a team does not have the minimum number of seven players.

2. Substitutions. Each team is allowed unlimited substitutions, but must have the referee's permission. Substitutions will occur during a stoppage in play. Requests for substitutions may be made by the coach of either team regardless of who has possession of the ball at a stoppage. The referee is at liberty to refuse any substitutions if the referee is of the opinion that the substituting team is gaining an unfair advantage or the substitution is being used to delay the game.

3. Substitution Procedure. To replace a player with a substitute, the following must be observed:

- the referee must be informed before any substitution is made;
- the player being substituted receives the referee's permission to leave the field of play, unless already off the field;
- the player being substituted should leave at the halfway line and takes no further part in the match until they are return substituted later in the match;
- the player being substituted must go immediately to the team's technical area;
- the player who is injured may leave the field at any boundary line;
- if a player who is to be replaced refuses to leave, play continues.

The substitute only enters:

- during a stoppage in play
- at the halfway line
- after the player being replaced has left
- after receiving a signal from the referee

The substitution is completed when a substitute enters the field of play; from that moment, the replaced player becomes a substituted player and the substitute becomes a player and can take any restart. If a substitution is made during the half-time interval or before extra time, the procedure must be completed before the match restarts. All substituted players and substitutes are subject to the referee's authority whether they play or not.

4. Delaying play for a substitution. Substitutions are to be made as quickly as possible and coaches/players may be sanctioned for delaying play to continue (as per Law 12.4 Delaying the Restart of Play).

5. Goalkeepers. Goalkeepers may be changed at any time during the game, during overtime or during a shootout. Any of the players or substitutes may change places with the goalkeeper and this must occur at a stoppage of play and only with the permission of the referee. The referee must be notified and approve any change in goalkeeper (other than at half-time, including half-time of extra time, or the period between the end of the match and the start of extra time and/or penalty shootout), prior to the change taking place.

If a player changes places with the goalkeeper and without the referee's permission, the referee:

- allows play to continue until there is a stoppage in play
- cautions both players when the ball is next out of play (Law 12, Article 3a) but not if the change occurred during half-time (including half-time of extra time) or the period between the end of the match and the start of extra time and/or penalty shootout.
- restarts play in accordance with the appropriate restart to the stoppage.

6. Players and substitutes sent off. A player who is sent-off before the kick-off may be replaced by a substitute. After the kick-off a player sent-off cannot be replaced.

7. Registered Players. Only registered Inter-zone soccer players are allowed to play. Each team will only be allowed to field its league designated and assigned players (except as described under Law 3.9 "Guest substitutes").

8. Equal Play. Approximately equal playing time is the goal of the league. Each player, other than the goalkeeper, MUST be substituted so as to allow everyone to participate in the game. If any player is sick or injured and would not be able to participate equally, then the referee must be informed during a stoppage in play. Coaches must give all of their players an equal amount of playing time during all game periods including overtime, and the opportunity to participate in the shootout.

If at half time either team's coach feels the equal play rule has been breached, they are to lodge a complaint with the referee. The referee will advise the offending team and if the referee feels that during the second half this situation has not been rectified the referee may issue disciplinary sanctions against the coach and will report the situation to the league. Violations may be punished by a Caution or Sending-off or the game may be suspended.

9. Modifications to Rules. There may be situations where there are insufficient number of players on one or both teams, and it is in the best interests of the game for the referee and coaches to modify the rules so as to allow a fair game to be played.

Modifications may be made to the number of players on the field of play or players may be shared between the teams in order to allow a game to be played. These game modifications should be encouraged so as to provide a fun playing experience but the changes must be agreed to by the respective coaches and the referee.

Modifications must be made either before the game, or at halftime. If a team has an insufficient number of players at any other time during the game, that team must default the game (per Law 3.1- minimum number of players).

9. Guest Substitutes. During regular season play, there may be occasions when a team has insufficient numbers of players who show up for a match. The coach may recruit other players from other Inter-Zone teams to play as guest substitutes for the team.

- Borrowing of guest substitutes will only be allowed in the case of a team having insufficient number of players to mount a side.
- The coach must receive consent from the referee before these guest substitutes will be permitted to play and before the match can start. A coach request and referee consent is only given for that single game.
- The guest substitutes must be registered in one of the Inter-Zone soccer associations in order to play.
- Guest substitutes can play in their own age group or move up in age (to a maximum of one age group). Guest substitutes are not permitted to play down to younger age groups.
- If a team plays with guest substitutes and the coach has not requested consent from the referee, the referee may exclude the guest substitutes from further play and will report the matter to the league for further action.

Teams may recruit guest substitutes to a maximum of twice the minimum number of 7 players (as defined in Law 3.1). The number of guest substitutes plus registered team players would be to a maximum of 14 players (2 times 7).

- If more than these numbers of players on the roster are available to play then guest substitutes are not allowed.
- For the start of the game a team may NOT borrow more guest substitutes than the other team has for total number of players available for play. For example: if Team A has 9 players and Team B has 14 players, Team A would be allowed to borrow 5 guest players to bring their total to that of the other team, a total of 14 players.
- Once the referee has allowed guest substitutes to play for a team and the match has started, these players are allowed to play for the team for the entire game even if late players have arrived to join the team and the total number of players exceeds the sufficient number of players.

During tournament play, no guest substitutes are allowed unless tournament rules so specify. All players must be registered on the team that is competing.

10. Extra persons on the field of play. The coach and other officials on the team are considered to be team officials. Anyone not associated in an official capacity with the team, such as a spectator, is considered as an outside agent. If a team official, substitute, substituted player, sent-off player or outside agent enters the field of play the referee must:
- stop play only if there is interference with play
 - have the person removed from play when play stops
 - take appropriate disciplinary action

If play is stopped and interference was by:

- a team official, substitute or substituted player then play restarts with a direct free kick or penalty kick
- an outside agent then play restarts by a dropped ball.

If play is not stopped then the referee may deal with the unauthorized entry onto the field of play or interference at the next stoppage of play.

If a ball is going into a goal and the interference does not prevent a defending player from playing the ball, the goal is awarded if the ball enters the goal (even if contact was made with the ball) unless the interference was by the attacking team.

11. Player outside the field of play. If a player who requires the referee's permission to re-enter the field of play re-enters without the referee's permission, the referee must:

- stop play (not immediately if the player does not interfere with play or a match official or if the advantage can be applied)
- caution the player for entering the field of play without permission.

If the referee stops play, it must be restarted:

- with a direct free kick from the position of the interference
- with an indirect free kick from the position of the ball when play was stopped if there was no interference

A player who crosses a boundary line as part of a playing movement, does not commit an infringement.

12. Goal scored with an extra player on the field: If, after a goal is scored, the referee realises, before play restarts, an extra person was on the field of play when the goal was scored and that person interfered with play:

- the referee must disallow the goal if the extra person was:
 - a player, substitute, substituted player, sent off player or team official of the team that scored the goal; play is restarted with a direct free kick from the position of the extra person
 - an outside agent who interfered with play unless a goal results as outlined above in 'extra persons on the field of play; play is restarted with a goal kick, corner kick or dropped ball.
- the referee must allow the goal if the extra person was:
 - a player, substitute, substituted player, sent off player or team official of the team that conceded the goal
 - an outside agent who did not interfere with play

In all cases, the referee must have the extra person removed from the field of play.

If, after a goal is scored and play has restarted, the referee realises an extra person was on the field of play when the goal was scored, the goal cannot be disallowed. If the extra person is still on the field the referee must:

- stop play
- have the extra person removed
- restart with a dropped ball or free kick as appropriate

The referee must report the incident to the league.

13. Team captain: The team captain has no special status or privileges but has a degree of responsibility for the behaviour of the team.

Law 4: The Player's Equipment:

The following rules are for player protection, it is up to all coaches to ensure that they are followed for every player at every game.

- 1. Safety. Players will not wear anything which endangers themselves or other players (including any kind of jewellery such as necklaces, rings, bracelets, earrings, leather bands, rubber bands, metal hairclips, etc.).
 - It is strongly recommended that jewellery be removed. If it cannot be removed it must be covered with tape or other such material.
 - All non-prescription glasses must be removed.
 - Medic alert bracelets, anklets, necklets, etc. are permitted but may need to be taped to make them safe.
 - The referee must inspect and approve the covering of jewellery, casts, guards and braces before play is allowed.

(From the CSA Canada Soccer Guide to Safety)

Hard casts are considered to pose a danger to both the wearer and other players and are not permitted to be worn. The practice of padding a hard cast does not reduce the element of danger. Players wearing a soft cast, brace or guard will be permitted to play if the cast does not present a danger to the individual or any other player.

The referee or Supervisor of Officials (if one has been appointed to the match/tournament) will make the final decision as to the acceptability of any cast.

Any player who uses a cast with the intent to intimidate or injure an opponent shall be sent off.

- No article of clothing that has an opening/closing mechanism or covers the neck such as a neck scarf will be allowed.
- In the case of cold weather the referee may allow players to wear toques or hooded sweat shirts (preferably under the jersey), and sweatpants. Neck ties or laces on hoodies are not to be tied around the neck and are to be tucked into the clothing. In the case of cold weather the referee may allow players to wear light gloves.
- For player safety, players are not to chew gum, or have in their mouths any candy, sunflower seeds, or other materials. These materials present a choking hazard. Mouth guards are allowed to be worn as long as the devices cannot be swallowed.

2. Compulsory equipment. Compulsory equipment for all players will consist of a numbered shirt or jersey, shorts, socks, shinguard and footwear designed for outdoor use such as athletic runners or soccer footwear with rubber cleats. All players must have this equipment at every game – failure by any player to wear proper footwear and protective shin pads will result in the player being unable to play that game.

Other equipment rules:

- The two teams must wear colours that distinguish them from each other and from the match officials. All players on the same team will wear the same colored shirts and will not have identical numbers.
- Footwear with metal cleats are not allowed.
- The shirts/jerseys should be tucked in.
- Shinguards must be fully covered by socks.
- Cycling or other types of athletic shorts are permitted.
- Jeans, jean shorts, or any bottoms with belt loops will not be permitted.
- Mini-shinguards are not permitted.

It is strongly recommended that players wear shinguards made of a suitable material, and of a suitable size as to provide reasonable protection against kicks and impacts. Players are responsible for the suitability of their compulsory equipment.

A player whose footwear or shinguard is lost accidentally during the game must replace it as soon as possible and no later than when the ball next goes out of play; if before doing so the player plays the ball and/or scores a goal, the goal is awarded.

ANY PLAYER OR TEAM DEFACING UNIFORM(S) WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO PLAY UNTIL THE UNIFORM(S) HAS BEEN REPLACED.

3. Goalkeeper. The goalkeeper must wear a jersey or pinnie different in colour than either team or the referee. If available, pinnies may be worn by one of the teams when two teams are wearing similar colors or when a team wears colors that may be confused with the referee. If the two goalkeepers' shirts are the same colour and neither has another shirt, the referee will allow the match to be played.

Non-dangerous protective equipment, for example gloves, headgear, facemasks and knee and arm protectors made of soft, lightweight padded material is permitted, as are goalkeepers' caps and sports spectacles. Goalkeepers may wear tracksuit bottoms/sweatpants.

- 4. Non-compulsory Equipment. Players are not allowed to play wearing baseball hats, bandanas or other headwear unless for religious or medical reasons. As per FIFA directives, religious headscarves, hijabs, turbans, patkas, or keshkis, or specialized medical headwear are allowed to be worn by players but they must be inspected by the referee before each game to ensure they are safe and do not pose a danger to the wearer or to other participants.

No headwear or specialized equipment are allowed to have any part(s) extending out from the surface (protruding elements) that could pose a danger to players or the wearer.

- 5. Electronics and Communications Equipment. Players (including substitutes/substituted players) are not permitted to wear or use any form of electronic or communication equipment, such as Fit Bits or Apple Watches. Watches are not to be worn. Cell phones are not to be brought onto the field and must not be used in the technical area during the game.

Covering devices with tape or padding such as sweat bands is not allowed. If a player attempts to hide devices by covering them they may be cautioned for Unsporting Behaviour. If a player is directed to remove a device and refuses to comply or then returns to the field of play with the device hidden or covered they must be cautioned. Watches/devices falling under medical exemptions would be allowed if they are approved by the league and inspected by the referee as per Section 4 of this Law.

The use of any form of electronic communication by team officials is permitted where it directly relates to player welfare or safety or for tactical/coaching reasons but only small, mobile, handheld equipment (e.g. microphone, headphone, earpiece, mobile phone/ smartphone, smartwatch, tablet, laptop) may be used. A team official who uses unauthorised equipment or who behaves in an inappropriate manner as a result of the use of electronic or communication equipment will be sent off.

- 6. Slogans, statements, images and advertising. Team equipment and player garments should not have any political, gang related, religious or personal slogans, statements or images on them. Players must not reveal undergarments that show political, gang related, religious, personal slogans, statements or images, or advertising other than the manufacturer's logo.

When interpreting whether a slogan, statement or image is permissible, note should be taken of Law 12 (Fouls and Misconduct), which requires the referee to take action against a player who is guilty of:

- using offensive, insulting or abusive language and/or action(s) - sending off offence (Law 12.6b)
- acting in a provocative, derisory or inflammatory way – caution offence (Law 12.6a)

Any slogan, statement or image which falls into any of these categories is not permitted.

- 7. Inspection. The players must be inspected before the start of the match and substitutes before they enter the field of play. If a player is wearing or using unauthorized/ dangerous equipment or jewellery, the referee must order the player to:
- remove the item
 - leave the field of play at the next stoppage if the player is unable or unwilling to comply

A player who refuses to comply or wears the item again must be cautioned.

- 8. Offenses. For any offence play need not be stopped and the player:
- is instructed by the referee to leave the field of play to correct the equipment
 - leaves when play stops, unless the equipment has already been corrected

A player who leaves the field of play to correct or change equipment must:

- have the equipment checked by a match official before being allowed to re-enter
- only re-enter with the referee's permission (which may be given during play)

A player who enters without permission must be cautioned, and if play is stopped to issue the caution, an indirect free kick is awarded from the position of the ball when play was stopped, unless there was interference, in which case a direct free kick (or penalty kick) is awarded from the position of the interference.

Law 5: The Referee:

1. Authority. Each referee is appointed by the league. The referee has full authority to enforce the Laws of the Game in connection with the match.

The referee has the authority to take disciplinary action from entering the field of play for the pre-match inspection until leaving the field of play after the match ends (including penalty shootout). Players committing a serious offence before or after the game will be reported to the league's Discipline Committee. If, before entering the field of play at the start of the match, a player commits a sending-off offence, the referee has the authority to prevent the player taking part in the match (see Law 3.6); the referee will report any other misconduct. Cautions for pre-match offences are not issued but referees will report these players to the league.

Referees are empowered to give a player a red card before the match kicks off. Officials can punish red-card offences (e.g. violent conduct) in the warm-up or as the two teams line up for entry to the field. A player may be sent off any time between the pre-match inspection and when the referee leaves the field at the end of the game.

Free-kicks and even card penalties can be awarded if members of the team, playing or non-playing, on or off the field of play cause the game to be stopped.

2. Decisions. Decisions will be made to the best of the referee's ability according to the Laws of the Game and the 'spirit of the game' and will be based on the opinion of the referee, who has the discretion to take appropriate action within the framework of the Laws of the Game.

The decisions of the referee regarding facts connected with play, including whether or not a goal is scored and the result of the match, are final. The decisions of the referee, and all other match officials, must always be respected.

The referee may not change a restart decision on realising that it is incorrect or on the advice of another match official if play has restarted or the referee has signalled the end of the first or second half (including extra time) and left the field of play or abandoned the match.

A disciplinary sanction may only be issued after play has restarted if another match official had identified and attempted to communicate the offence to the referee before play restarted; the restart associated with the sanction does not apply (e.g. a caution or sending off may be issued but the direct kick/penalty kick may not be granted).

However, if at the end of the half, the referee leaves the field of play to go to talk to the other match officials or to instruct the players to return to the field of play, this does not prevent a decision being changed for an incident which occurred before the end of the half.

If a referee is incapacitated, play may continue under the supervision of the other match officials until the ball is next out of play. If necessary another match official may take over the supervision of the game if the referee cannot return to the match.

3. Powers and Duties. The referee:
 - enforces the Laws of the Game and the regulations of the competition
 - controls the match in cooperation with the other match officials
 - acts as timekeeper controlling the start and stoppage of play
 - keeps a record of the match and provides the appropriate authorities with a match report, including information on disciplinary action and any other incidents that occurred before, during or after the match
 - supervises and/or indicates the restart of play
 - decides if the ball, the playing area, and other equipment are suitable
 - ensures that the player's equipment meets the requirements of Law 4
 - signals the start of the game, the restart after a stoppage, and the end of play

Disciplinary action

- has discretionary power to stop, suspend, or terminate the game for any infringement of the Laws, as a result of any kind of outside interference (for example, interference by spectators), or any other cause
- punishes the more serious offence, in terms of sanction, restart, physical severity and tactical impact, when more than one offence occurs at the same time (Where two separate cautionable offences are committed, even in close proximity, they should result in two cautions. See Law 12.3a)

- takes disciplinary action against players guilty of cautionable and sending-off offences
- has the power to show yellow or red cards and, where competition rules permit, temporarily dismiss a player, from entering the field of play at the start of the match until after the match has ended, including during the half-time interval, extra time and penalty shootout
- takes action against team officials who fail to act in a responsible manner and warns or shows a yellow card for a caution or a red card for a sending-off from the field of play and its immediate surrounds, including the technical area; if the offender cannot be identified, the senior coach present in the technical area will receive the sanction.
- acts on the advice of other match officials regarding incidents that the referee has not seen
- warn or send off any parent, spectator, or team supporter guilty of offensive or insulting or abusive language and/or gestures; acts of misconduct, harassment, verbal abuse, foul language or abuse of the referee
- report, in writing, to the appropriate league authority, any misconduct by players, coaches, spectators or other persons which takes place on the playing area or within its vicinity at any time prior to, during, or after the game

Injuries

- allows play to continue until the ball is out of play if a player is only slightly injured
- stops play if a player is seriously injured and ensures that the player is removed from the field of play. An injured player may not be treated on the field of play and may only re-enter after play has restarted; if the ball is in play, re-entry must be from the touchline but if the ball is out of play, it may be from any boundary line. Exceptions to the requirement to leave the field of play are only when:
 - a goalkeeper is injured
 - a goalkeeper and an outfield player have collided and need attention
 - players from the same team have collided and need attention
 - a severe injury has occurred
 - a player is injured as the result of a physical offence for which the opponent is cautioned or sent off (e.g. reckless or serious foul challenge), if the assessment/treatment is completed quickly
 - a penalty kick has been awarded and the injured player will be the kicker
- ensures that any player bleeding leaves the field of play. The player may only re-enter on receiving a signal from the referee, who must be satisfied that the bleeding has stopped and there is no blood on the uniform or playing area
- if the referee has decided to caution or send off a player who is injured and has to leave the field of play for treatment, the card must be shown before the player leaves
- if play has not been stopped for another reason, or if an injury suffered by a player is not the result of an offence, play is restarted with a dropped ball

Referees and all participants must be particularly concerned about the possibility of brain injury including concussion that may result from collisions between players, or with objects such as goal posts or the playing surface. Referees will stop play in all situations where there is a possibility of serious injury involving head collisions. Players will be required to leave the playing area to receive assistance, assessment and possible treatment. Coaches will follow the Soccer Canada Concussion Guidelines in their support to players and in the determination of when it is safe to return to play.

Outside interference

- stops, suspends or abandons the match for any offences or because of outside interference (e.g. if: there is a problem with the field or goalposts that interferes with play and that cannot be corrected)
- an object thrown by a spectator hits a match official, a player or team official, the referee may allow the match to continue, or stop, suspend or abandon it depending on the severity of the incident
- a spectator blows a whistle which interferes with play – play is stopped and restarted with a dropped ball
- an extra ball, other object or animal enters the field of play during the match, the referee must:
 - stop play (and restart with a dropped ball) only if it interferes with play – unless the ball is going into the goal and the interference does not prevent a defending player playing the ball; the goal is awarded if the ball enters the goal (even if contact was made with the ball) unless the interference was by the attacking team
 - allow play to continue if it does not interfere with play and have it removed at the earliest possible opportunity
- allows no unauthorised persons to enter the field of play

4. The Advantage Rule: The IFAB's advantage rule allows play to continue when an offense occurs if the non-offending team is in a promising attacking position, potentially benefiting from the continuation of play rather than a stoppage and free kick.

The advantage is played by the referee when an offence (foul, handball, offside, technical, etc.) is committed and, because the non-offending team has useful possession of the ball, the referee allows play to continue, as it is of greater benefit to them than awarding a free kick.

The referee signals an advantage by extending one or both arms in front of their body at shoulder height.

The referee should only play the advantage if:

- there is a real benefit to be gained by the non-offending team
- no player is seriously injured
- there is no risk of a reaction or confrontation

Unless there is a clear goal-scoring opportunity for the non-offending team, the referee should not play the advantage following red-card offences, particularly those involving serious foul play or violent conduct, or offences that require a second yellow card.

The referee must make a quick, calculated decision and should remember that:

- allowing play to continue is not always in the best interest of the non-offending team, e.g. if they are in or near their own penalty area and/or under pressure
- awarding a free kick in an attacking position may be better for the non-offending team than allowing play to continue

The referee can wait a few seconds to allow a possible advantage to develop, and if the non-offending team does not benefit and gains no advantage, the free kick can be given for the original offence. However, the non-offending team should not be given two chances to benefit. For instance, if a player is fouled, recovers, has a shot at goal and fails to score, the referee cannot go back and give a free kick for the original offence.

If the referee plays the advantage following an offence that would have resulted in a red or yellow card being shown, the card must be shown the next time the game stops. However:

- if the offence was denying an obvious goal-scoring opportunity, a yellow card is shown instead of a red card, as playing the advantage allowed the attack to continue
- if the offence was stopping or interfering with a promising attack, no card is shown as playing the advantage allowed the attack to continue

The referee may play advantage whenever an offence occurs but should consider the following in deciding whether to apply the advantage or stop play:

- the severity of the offence – if the offence warrants a sending-off, the referee must stop play and send off the player unless there is a clear opportunity to score a goal
- the position where the offence was committed – the closer to the opponent's goal, the more effective the advantage can be
- the chances of an immediate, promising attack
- the atmosphere of the match

The advantage is given at the referee's discretion and may or may not be used depending on the game situation.

5. Bad Weather (Rain, Lightning, Heat, Air Quality, etc.):

At all times referees and coaches must put the safety of the players first. In the case of rain, if the grass becomes slippery where player safety is endangered or the field is at risk of extensive damage, or any other situation exists which jeopardizes the safety of any participants, the game MUST be suspended. (The field is not suitable for play, if you step on the turf and moisture can be detected around your shoe). Referees and coaches must also consider player safety when encountering heat warnings and air quality warnings as issued by public health agencies or Environment Canada. These situations are judgement calls on the part of the referee and coaches with the referee having the final decision.

In the case of lightning/thunder, heat, air quality, or other extreme weather, refer to the RWZCSA weather policy.

6. Referee's equipment. Referees must have the following equipment:

- Jersey (Team colors should not conflict with those of the official uniform for referees (black). (Referees are permitted to wear referee jerseys or pinnies of colors other than black as long as they do not conflict with team or goalkeeper colors.)
- Shorts, socks, and appropriate footwear. As with players, during cold weather, referees may wear toques, sweatshirts (under their jersey), sweatpants and light gloves.
- Whistle
- Watch
- Red and yellow cards
- Notebook (or other means of keeping a record of the match), and pen/pencil

Referees and other 'on-field' match officials are prohibited from wearing jewellery or using any other electronic equipment, including cameras and cell phones.

7. Liability of match officials. A referee or other match official is not held liable for:

- any kind of injury suffered by a player, official or spectator
- any damage to property of any kind
- any other loss suffered by any individual, club, company, association, or other body, which is due or which may be due to any decision taken under the terms of the Laws of the Game or in respect of the normal procedures required to hold, play and control a match

Such decisions may include a decision:

- that the condition of the field of play or its surrounds or that the weather conditions are such as to allow or not to allow a match to take place
- to abandon a match for whatever reason
- as to the suitability of the field equipment and ball used during a match
- to stop or not to stop a match due to spectator interference or any problem in spectator areas
- to stop or not to stop play to allow an injured player to be removed from the field of play for treatment
- to require an injured player to be removed from the field of play for treatment
- to allow or not to allow a player to wear certain clothing or equipment
- where the referee has the authority, to allow or not to allow any persons (including team or field officials, security officers, photographers or media representatives) to be present in the vicinity of the field of play
- any other decision taken in accordance with the Laws of the Game or in conformity with their duties under the terms of league or competition rules or regulations under which the match is played

LAW 6: THE OTHER MATCH OFFICIALS:

Other Match Officials (two Assistant Referees and any other designated "Other Match Officials" may be appointed to matches. They will assist the referee in controlling the match in accordance with the Laws of The Game but the final decision will always be taken by the referee.

1. Assistant Referees. The League will designate assistant referees to act as on-field match officials.

2. Duties:

- The Assistant Referees operate under the direction of the referee. In the event of undue interference or improper conduct, the referee will relieve them of their duties and make a report to the appropriate authorities.
- They assist the referee with offences and infringements when they have a clearer view than the referee and they must submit a report to the appropriate authorities on any serious misconduct or other incident that occurred out of the view of the referee and the other match officials, e.g. serious spectator misconduct (Law 12).
- They assist the referee with inspecting the field of play (Law 1), the soccer balls (Law 2) and players' equipment (including if problems have been resolved) (Law 4) and maintaining records of time (Law 7), goals (Law 10), misconduct (Law 12), etc.

3. Additional Duties. Assistant Referees will indicate when:

- the ball leaves the field of play (when the whole of the ball crosses a touchline or a goal line including when a goal is scored) (Laws 9 and 10)
- a team is entitled to a corner kick, goal kick or throw-in (Laws 15, 16 and 17)
- a player in an offside position may be penalised (Law 11)
- during a penalty kick, the goalkeeper moves off the goal line before the ball is kicked and if the ball crosses the line (Law 14)

The assistant referee's assistance also includes monitoring the substitution procedures described in Law 3.

The assistant referee may enter the field of play to help control the 9.15m (10 yards) distance (Law 13).

The Assistant Referee will:

- control the re-entry of a player following a signal/approval from the referee
- inform the referee of irresponsible behaviour by any technical area occupant (coach, team official, substitute)
- inform the referee of irresponsible behaviour by any spectator
- control the intrusion of players and spectators into the needed space along the sidelines for the Assistant Referee to perform their movements

The Assistant Referee may assist the referee to make a change in a decision already rendered in cases where they believe there was a 'clear and obvious error' or 'serious missed incident' relating to a goal/no goal, penalty/no penalty, direct red card (not a second caution) or a case of mistaken identity when the referee cautions or sends off the wrong player of the offending team. In all of these situations the Assistant Referee should signal the referee before a restart in play and offer their observations to the referee. It is up to the referee to decide if the new information will be simply advisory or it will be used for changing a previous call.

4. Other Match Officials (Off-the-field of play).

Normally the referee and assistant referees are the only match officials on the field of play and the referee has sole responsibility in controlling the game. Other match officials may be appointed to matches and tournament games by the league to assist the referee in controlling the match in accordance with the Laws of the Game, but the final decision will always be taken by the referee. The other match officials normally will remain outside of the field of play and observe the game. They will operate under the direction of the referee and under the authority of the league. In the event of undue interference, improper conduct or serious potential bias the referee may relieve the other match officials of their duties and make a report to the league.

5. Duties of Other Match Officials. The other match officials may assist the referee with match control functions such as:

- inspecting the field of play and resolving issues; maintaining game records; helping resolve player or game equipment concerns; coordinating facilities; provision of game balls;
- assisting the referee with observing offences and infringements when they have a clearer view than the referee;

If the other match official observes a serious infringement to the Laws of the Game, they should wait until a stoppage in play and bring the issue to the attention of the referee before the next restart. It is up to the referee to decide if the new information will be simply advisory or it will be used for a verbal warning or further discipline;

- submitting reports to the League on any serious misconduct or other incident that occurred out of the view of the referee.
- observing coach, team official and spectator behavior to ensure compliance with the Laws of the Game;
- assisting the referee with shootouts;

- supporting the referee as required.

6. Other League Officials at matches. The league may assign other officials to attend matches to perform specific tasks such as facility management which might include on-field maintenance, supervisory or security functions.

Another important league official that may be assigned to a match would be the Referee Mentor whose responsibility is to assist, mentor, and evaluate referees to support their development of confidence and competence.

- The mentor would support the game referee with pre-match, break at the half, and post-match comments and advice.
- These mentors are normally experienced referees and would be wearing a referee jersey.
- At the beginning of the match they would present themselves along with the game referee to the coaches. The mentors may ask coaches for comments after the match.
- The mentor's role is to observe how the game referee handles the game and how they interact with players, coaches and spectators.
- In the rarest of occasions, the mentor may have to interject themselves into a game to correct a serious error or support the game referee if they have lost control of a situation.
- The Referee mentor may be required to replace the game referee if the game referee has been injured, was not properly prepared, or was deemed to be unable to continue. In the event of a game referee being unable to continue they may be replaced by another game referee or even another league official

LAW 7: THE DURATION OF THE GAME:

- 1. Duration of the Game: The game is normally divided into two equal halves of 30 minutes with no more than 5 minutes at half time. The referee may be required to adjust game timings to accommodate for games starting late or for game interruptions that take away from playing time. Referees should ensure that coaches are informed of game timing adjustments in advance so that coaches can plan for team strategy, player substitutions, and game management.
- 2. Game Timing Discipline. Referees and coaches should enforce game timing discipline on teams. Game periods and overtimes should start on time and teams will be required to move to and from the field of play in an orderly fashion. Excessive time wasting by players and coaches should be sanctioned by the referee issuing cautions (yellow cards) for delaying the restart of play.
- 3. Running Clock. The clock shall run for the duration of each period including all stoppages of play. The referee shall act as timekeeper and can, at his/her discretion, allow extra playing time for time lost through injury or other cause. The referee can suspend play and the game, at any time, for any serious infringement of the rules or other sufficient cause, such as bad weather or if the field is too wet.
- 4. Timing Errors. The referee must not compensate for a timekeeping error during the first half by changing the length of the second half.
- 5. Extending time. Time may be extended to allow for stoppages from regular playing time due to injuries (assessments and/or removal of injured players, injury simulation), disciplinary sanctions (fouls), wasting time (such as delayed restarts, substitutions (player changes, changes to goalkeeper, shift changes after a goal), or other interruptions of play (such as goal celebrations, ball being kicked out of bounds, etc.).

If the referee stops play for a water break, the break should be kept as short as possible (which should not exceed one minute) and allowance for the breaks should be made in the calculation of stoppage time. The addition of stoppage time is at the discretion of the referee.

Schedules for games may not allow for much time between games and any excessive time lost to interruptions to play in one game may interfere with scheduled game starts of subsequent games. Referees may not have much allowance to make up for time lost by adding extra time.

- 6. Penalty kick. If a penalty kick has to be taken or retaken, the half is extended until the penalty kick is completed.

7. Abandoned match. An abandoned match is not replayed unless the competition rules or organisers determine otherwise.

LAW 8: THE START AND RESTART OF PLAY:

A kick-off starts both halves of a match, both halves of extra time and restarts play after a goal has been scored. The kick-off is described in this Law.

Restarts include Free kicks (direct or indirect), penalty kicks, throw-ins, goal kicks, and corner kicks (see Laws 13 to 17).

A dropped ball is the restart when the referee stops play and the Law does not require one of the above restarts.

If an offence occurs when the ball is not in play, this does not change how play is restarted.

1. Kick-off Procedure:

- the team that wins the toss of a coin decides which goal to attack in the first half or to take the kick-off
- depending on the above, their opponents take the kick-off or decide which goal to attack in the first half
- the team that decided which goal to attack in the first half takes the kick-off to start the second half
- for the second half, the teams change ends and attack the opposite goals
- after a team scores a goal, the kick-off is taken by their opponents

For every kick-off:

- all players, except the player taking the kick-off, must be in their own half of the field of play
- the opponents of the team taking the kick-off must be at least 9.15 m (10 yds) from the ball until it is in play
- the ball must be stationary on the centre mark
- the referee gives a signal
- the ball is in play when it is kicked and clearly moves
- the kicker cannot touch the ball a second time until it has been touched by another player
- a goal may be scored directly against the opponents from the kick-off; if the ball directly enters the kicker's own goal, a corner kick is awarded to the opponents

Offences and sanctions

If the player taking the kick-off touches the ball again before it has touched another player, an indirect free kick, or for a handball offence, a direct free kick, is awarded.

In the event of any other kick-off procedure offence, the kick-off is retaken.

2. Dropped Ball: If, while the ball is still in play, the referee is required to stop play temporarily for any reason not mentioned elsewhere in these rules, the game is restarted with a dropped ball from the place where the ball was located when play was stopped.

Procedure:

- The ball is dropped for the defending team goalkeeper in their penalty area if, when play was stopped: the ball was in the penalty area or the last touch of the ball was in the penalty area
- In all other cases, if the ball is outside the penalty area when play is stopped, it is dropped for the team that had or would have gained possession if this is clear to the referee; otherwise, it is dropped for the team that last touched it. The ball is dropped at its position when play was stopped.
- The ball is dropped at its position when play is stopped when the ball strikes an outside agent or, as outlined in Law 9.1, a match official.
- All other players (of both teams) must remain at least 4 m from the ball until it is in play
- The ball is in play when it touches the field of play.
- Once the ball is dropped the player may pass the ball or run with it. The 'double-touch' prohibition does not apply. If a dropped ball enters the goal without touching at least two players then a goal may not be scored.

3. Offences and Sanctions:

The ball is dropped again if it:

- touches a player before it touches the ground
- leaves the field of play after it touches the ground, without touching a player

If a dropped ball enters the goal without touching at least two players, play is restarted with:

- a goal kick if it enters the opponents' goal
- a corner kick if it enters the team's goal

LAW 9: THE BALL IN AND OUT OF PLAY:1. Ball out of play. The ball is out of play when:

- it has wholly passed over the goal line or touchline on the ground or in the air (as per Law 10)
- play has been stopped by the referee (such as when a foul or misconduct has been committed as per Law 12)
- it touches a match official, remains on the field of play and:
 - a team starts a promising attack or
 - the ball goes directly into the goal or
 - the team in possession of the ball changes

In all these cases, play is restarted with a dropped ball.

2. Ball in play. Except as stated in Law 9.1, the ball is in play at all other times when it touches a match official (and the team in possession of the ball does not change) and when it rebounds off a goalpost, crossbar or corner flagpost and remains on the field of play.

An indirect free kick with no disciplinary sanction will be awarded if a team official, substitute, substituted or sent-off player or player who is temporarily off the field of play touches the ball as it is leaving the field of play and there was no intention to interfere unfairly.

LAW 10: DETERMINING THE OUTCOME OF A MATCH:

- Goals. A goal is scored when the whole of the ball passes over the goal line, between the goalposts and under the crossbar, provided that no offence or infringement of the Laws of the Game has been committed by the team scoring the goal. The referee will be the sole judge as to whether a goal has been scored.
- No-goal exceptions:
 - If the goalkeeper throws the ball directly into the opponents' goal, a goal kick is awarded.
 - If a referee signals a goal before the ball has passed wholly over the goal line, play is restarted with a dropped ball.
- Winning a Match. The team scoring the greater number of goals is the winner. If both teams score no goals or an equal number of goals the match is drawn. Tournament rules may specify an overtime or penalty shootout procedure to be followed in those events where a winner must be determined. Tournament organizers will announce the format prior to each tournament.

Overtime

- In all games in which a winner must be declared (i.e. a tournament), one (1) extra-time (overtime) period of five (5) minutes will be played with a "Golden Goal" or sudden-death format where the first goal scored ends the match. Tournament organizers will announce any changes to this format prior to each tournament.

Shootouts

5. If, at the end of extra time (overtime period), a tournament game is still tied; shootout kicks will be taken to determine the winner. All players recorded on the team roster (except any players ejected from the game or any player injured and unable to take part) will be eligible to take part in the taking of the kicks. Warnings and cautions issued during the match are not carried forward into Penalty shootouts. The taking of the shootout kicks will generally be in accordance with Law 14 (Penalty Kicks). The following conditions will apply:

Before Penalty shootout starts

- a) As indicated in the Code of Conduct and in Law 3, all players (other than the goalkeepers) MUST be afforded equal playing time. Coaches must give all of their players an equal amount of playing time during overtime and the opportunity to participate in the shootout. Where one team has a greater number of players or more of one gender than the opposing team, coaches and referees will have to watch closely to ensure all players have an equal opportunity to participate.
- b) There may be two phases to the shootout procedure. The first is a round of five-kicks for each team. The team that scores the most goals during this phase wins the game. If the score remains tied then teams advance to the next phase of the shootout, the alternating one-kick for each team. This phase would continue until one team scores one more goal than the other team after taking the same number of kicks.
- c) The referee will choose the goal at which all of the kicks will be taken. This choice is based on considerations such as field conditions and safety.
- d) All players except the goalkeeper and the player taking the kick will remain at the center circle or in another acceptable area designated by the referee.

Only eligible players selected for the shootout and match officials are permitted to remain on the field of play outside the penalty area. The goalkeeper of the kicker must remain on the field of play, outside the penalty area, on the goal line where it meets the penalty area boundary line so they may move quickly into the goal when the opposing team is ready to kick.

- e) Each team will designate a captain for the purposes of the coin toss. The referee tosses a coin (or some other method, such as “Rock-Paper-Scissors”) and the team whose captain wins the toss will decide whether to take the first or second kick.
- f) The five-kicks for each team phase. Each coach will select 5 players from their team – including at least two of each gender (if available) – to take shootout kicks (the goalkeeper may be included).

Where players of each gender are chosen it is not necessary for the coaches to match each other for gender order of kickers during the 1st round of five-kicks for each-team phase of the shootout. If one team has no players of a gender and the other team has one or more of that gender, then the second team is allowed to select any of their players to participate in this phase of the shootout regardless of gender.

Coaches will determine the shooting order for their players for the shootout and provide this information to the referee. Coaches are not allowed to change the order or gender of kickers after the information has been provided to the referee.

During Penalty shootout

- g) The defending goalkeeper must remain on the goal line, facing the kicker, and between the goalposts until the ball has been kicked. The ball is positioned stationary on the penalty mark. When the ball is kicked, the defending goalkeeper must have at least one foot touching, or in line with, or behind, the goal line.
- h) No kicks are allowed until the referee has given the appropriate signal for play to begin. The player taking the penalty kick must kick the ball forward. The ball is in play when it is kicked and clearly moves. The kicker will not play the ball a second time (such as when the ball rebounds off the opposing goalkeeper or bounces off the goal posts or cross bar). No double touch of the ball is allowed. The shootout kick is completed when the ball stops moving, goes out of play (scores a goal or crosses the goal line) or the referee stops play for any infringement of the Laws. A goal may be scored directly from a kick.

- i) A kick is successful if, having been touched once by the kicker, the ball crosses the goal line between the goal posts and under the crossbar, without touching any player, official, or outside agent other than the defending goalkeeper. The ball may touch the goalkeeper, goal posts, or crossbar any number of times before going into the goal as long as the referee believes the ball's motion is the result of the initial kick. The penalty kick is completed when, after the kick has been taken, the ball stops moving, goes out of play, is played by any player (including the kicker) other than the defending goalkeeper, scores a goal, or the referee stops play for an offence by the kicker or the kicker's team. (The ball is DEAD after a rebound from the goalkeeper, crossbar, goal posts, or end wall.)
- j) The kicks are taken alternately by the teams (e.g. Team A player one and then Team B player one, then Team A player two, then Team B player two, and so on.) Each kick is taken by a different player, and all eligible players must take a kick before any player from the same team can take a second kick. However, if one side has scored more successful kicks than the other could possibly reach with all of its remaining kicks, the shootout immediately ends regardless of the number of kicks remaining.

Subject to the conditions explained below, the shootout may continue

- k) The alternating one-kick for each team phase. If at the end of the five-kicks for each team phase the teams have scored an equal number of successful kicks, additional rounds of alternating one-kick for each team will be used until the tie is broken.
- l) Each coach will select 5 players from their team, including at least two of each gender (if available) to take part in the next round of one-kick for each-team phase of the shootout (the goalkeeper may be included). This selection of 5 kickers does not mean that all of these players will get the opportunity to kick. The selection is only to save time and to keep the shootout proceeding as quickly as possible.

The team shooting second must match the gender of the first team's shooter, i.e. if the first kicker is female, then the second team's kicker must also be a female if one is available and has not already taken a kick. Teams must alternate between the genders of their players so that everyone has a chance to participate.

If one team has no players of a gender and the other team has one or more of that gender, then the second team is allowed to select any of their players to participate in the shootout regardless of gender. However, as the one-kick for each team phase continues in a tied score, all players must be provided the opportunity to participate in the shootout.

Coaches will determine the shooting order for their players for the shootout and provide this information to the referee. Coaches are not allowed to change the order or gender of kickers after the information has been provided to the referee.

- m) The first of these kickers will then take their kick for one team, and then the first kicker from the other team will have their turn. If one team has scored one goal more than the other team then the game is over. If still tied, the taking of kicks will continue until such time as both teams have taken an equal number of kicks and one team has scored one goal more than the other. If that happens the game is over and a winning team has been determined. If still tied the alternating one-kick for each team phase will continue until the tie is broken and a winner determined.
- n) All players must remain on the field of play until the tie is broken.
- o) No player will be allowed to take a second kick until all other eligible players on their team have taken a first kick, including the goalkeeper.
- p) If it becomes necessary for players to take another kick (because the score has remained equal after all eligible players have taken their first kick), players are not required to kick in the same order.

- q) Any player who is eligible may change places with the goalkeeper at any time during the taking of the kicks. If a goalkeeper is injured or sent off during the shootout, another player must act as goalkeeper. When changing goalkeepers the coach should inform the referee prior to the substitution. A replacement for a goalkeeper cannot take a kick in that “round” if the goalkeeper has already taken a kick.
- r) Kicks from the penalty mark must not be delayed for a player who leaves the playing area. The player’s kick will be forfeited (not scored) if the player does not return in time to take a kick.
- s) The team that scores the most successful kicks at the end of the shootout will be winner of the match.
- t) The referee keeps a record of the kicks.

Offenses and Sanctions.

6. As indicated in Law 14, infringements of the shootout procedure will be punished. For any infringement of the above Law:

- Penalty shootouts must not be delayed for a player who leaves the field of play. The player’s kick will be forfeited (not scored) if the player does not return in time to take a kick.
- If the goalkeeper commits an offence and, as a result, the kick is retaken, the goalkeeper is warned for the first offence and cautioned for any subsequent offence(s)
- If the kicker is penalised for an offence committed after the referee has signalled for the kick to be taken, that kick is recorded as missed and the kicker is cautioned
- If both the goalkeeper and the kicker commit an offence at the same time, the kick is recorded as missed and the kicker is cautioned

Substitutions and sending-offs during Penalty shootouts

- A player, substitute, substituted player or team official may be cautioned or sent off
 - A goalkeeper who is sent off must be replaced by an eligible player
 - A player other than the goalkeeper who is unable to continue may not be replaced
 - The referee must not abandon the match if a team is reduced to fewer than seven players
7. Games not complete. If, for any reason a game is not completed (e.g. due to weather or field conditions), the tournament organizers will decide on the outcome of the game by possibly proceeding directly to OT or if necessary having teams flip a coin or rock paper scissors to decide a winner. The tournament instructions will specify how to proceed.

LAW 11: OFFSIDE:

1. Offside position

It is not an offence to be in an offside position.

A player is in an offside position if:

- any part of the head, body or feet is in the opponents’ half (excluding the halfway line) and
- any part of the head, body or feet is nearer to the opponents’ goal line than both the ball and the second-last opponent

The hands and arms of all players, including the goalkeepers, are not considered. For the purposes of determining offside, the upper boundary of the arm is in line with the bottom of the armpit.

A player is not in an offside position if level with the:

- second-last opponent or
- last two opponents

2. Offside offence

A player in an offside position at the moment the ball is played or touched (the first point of contact of the “play” or “touch” of the ball is used to make this determination) by a team-mate is only penalised on becoming involved in active play by:

- interfering with play by playing or touching a ball passed or touched by a team-mate or
- interfering with an opponent by:
 - preventing an opponent from playing or being able to play the ball by clearly obstructing the opponent’s line of vision, or
 - challenging an opponent for the ball, or
 - clearly attempting to play a ball which is close when this action impacts on an opponent, or
 - making an obvious action which clearly impacts on the ability of an opponent to play the ball
- or
- gaining an advantage by playing the ball or interfering with an opponent when it has:
 - rebounded or been deflected off the goalpost, crossbar, match official or an opponent
 - been deliberately saved by any opponent

A player in an offside position receiving the ball from an opponent who deliberately played* the ball, including by deliberate handball, is not considered to have gained an advantage, unless it was a deliberate save by any opponent.

*‘Deliberate play’ (excluding deliberate handball) is when a player has control of the ball with the possibility of:

- passing the ball to a team-mate;
- gaining possession of the ball; or
- clearing the ball (e.g. by kicking or heading it)

If the pass, attempt to gain possession or clearance by the player in control of the ball is inaccurate or unsuccessful, this does not negate the fact that the player ‘deliberately played’ the ball.

The following criteria should be used, as appropriate, as indicators that a player was in control of the ball and, as a result, can be considered to have ‘deliberately played’ the ball:

- The ball travelled from distance and the player had a clear view of it
- The ball was not moving quickly
- The direction of the ball was not unexpected
- The player had time to coordinate their body movement, i.e. it was not a case of instinctive stretching or jumping, or a movement that achieved limited contact/control
- A ball moving on the ground is easier to play than a ball in the air

A ‘save’ is when a player stops, or attempts to stop, a ball which is going into or very close to the goal with any part of the body except the hands/arms (unless the goalkeeper within the penalty area).

In situations where:

- a player moving from, or standing in, an offside position is in the way of an opponent and interferes with the movement of the opponent towards the ball this is an offside offence if it impacts on the ability of the opponent to play or challenge for the ball; if the player moves into the way of an opponent and impedes the opponent’s progress (e.g. blocks the opponent), the offence should be penalised under Law 12
- a player in an offside position is moving towards the ball with the intention of playing the ball and is fouled before playing or attempting to play the ball, or challenging an opponent for the ball, the foul is penalised as it has occurred before the offside offence
- an offence is committed against a player in an offside position who is already playing or attempting to play the ball, or challenging an opponent for the ball, the offside offence is penalised as it has occurred before the foul challenge

3. No offence

There is no offside offence if a player receives the ball directly from:

- a goal kick
- a throw-in
- a corner kick

4. Offences and sanctions

If an offside offence occurs, the referee awards an indirect free kick where the offence occurred, including if it is in the player's own half of the field of play.

A defending player who leaves the field of play without the referee's permission will be considered to be on the goal line or touchline for the purposes of offside until the next stoppage in play or until the defending team has played the ball towards the halfway line and it is outside its penalty area. If the player left the field of play deliberately, the player must be cautioned when the ball is next out of play.

An attacking player may step or stay off the field of play not to be involved in active play. If the player re-enters from the goal line and becomes involved in play before the next stoppage in play or the defending team has played the ball towards the halfway line and it is outside its penalty area, the player will be considered to be positioned on the goal line for the purposes of offside. A player who deliberately leaves the field of play and re-enters without the referee's permission and is not penalised for offside and gains an advantage must be cautioned.

If an attacking player remains stationary between the goalposts and inside the goal as the ball enters the goal, a goal must be awarded unless the player commits an offside offence or a Law 12 offence, in which case play is restarted with an indirect or direct free kick.

LAW 12: FOULS AND MISCONDUCTS:1. Fouls and Misconducts.

There are a number of penalties that can be administered for Fouls and Misconducts including the awarding of a free kick to the opposing team in accordance with Law 13 or the guilty player may also be penalized with a verbal warning, a caution (Yellow Card) or a sending off (Red Card) depending on the severity of the foul or misconduct.

Direct and indirect free kicks and penalty kicks can only be awarded for offences and infringements committed when the ball is in play.

Fouls are offenses that are committed by a player on the field of play and while the ball is in play. Misconducts are offenses that are committed by a player, substitute or coach, on or off the field of play and while the ball is in or out of play.

The Laws of The Game of soccer make special note of the following terms: Careless, reckless, and using excessive force when a foul occurs that involves physical contact between players. Such a foul is penalized by a direct free kick or penalty kick and may involve further disciplinary sanction such as a caution or sending off.

"Careless" means that the player has shown a lack of attention or consideration when making a challenge or acts without precaution (i.e. not taking measures to prevent something dangerous from happening).

- No further disciplinary sanction beyond a direct kick is needed if a foul is judged to be careless

"Reckless" means that the player has acted with disregard to the danger to, or consequences for, his opponent.

- A player who plays in a reckless manner must be cautioned (Yellow card)

"Using excessive force" means that the player exceeds the necessary use of force and endangers the safety of an opponent.

- A player who uses excessive force must be sent off (Red card)

2. Direct Free Kick

- a) A direct free kick will be awarded to the opposing team if a player commits any of the following infringements against an opponent in a manner considered by the referee to be careless, reckless or using excessive force:
- charges
 - jumps at
 - kicks or attempts to kick
 - pushes
 - strikes or attempts to strike (including head-butt)
 - tackles or challenges (i.e. tackles an opponent from behind in a manner which could cause injury or touching the opponent before the ball when attempting to win possession)
 - trips or attempts to trip (i.e. any attempt to kick, where the leg is raised high enough and in a reckless manner, so as to pose a danger to other players. As a general rule the foot should not exceed the waist in height in any situation where other players could be contacted. Bicycle and scissor kicks are not allowed due to inherent danger to participants.)

If an infringement involves physical contact it is penalized by a direct free kick or penalty kick. In the case of physical contact, the referee should carefully consider the high probability that misconduct has also been committed and further discipline may be appropriate (such as a caution or sending off).

- b) A direct free kick will also be awarded to the opposing team if a player commits any of the following offenses:
- a handball offence (except for the goalkeeper within their penalty area) (i.e. handles the ball deliberately such as carrying, stopping, striking, propelling or throwing the ball with one's hands or arms)
 - holds an opponent (i.e. holds an opponent for the tactical purpose of pulling the opponent away from the ball or preventing the opponent from getting to the ball)
 - impedes an opponent with contact
 - bites or spits at an opponent or any other person
 - throws an object at the ball, an opponent or a match official, or makes contact with the ball with a held object
 - touching the opponent before the ball when attempting to win possession.

See also offences in Law 3.10 to 3.12.

- c) The direct free kick will be taken from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the free kick has been awarded to the defending team in its own goal area, in which case the free kick may be taken from any point inside the goal area in accordance with Law 13.
- d) Should a defending player commit one of the above offences within the penalty-area while the ball is in play, irrespective of the position of the ball, a penalty-kick will be awarded to the opposing team in accordance with Law 14.
- e) Depending on the severity of the foul, players who commit any of the above offences may also receive a caution (shown the Yellow card) or be sent off (shown the Red Card). (e.g. Unsporting behaviour requires a Yellow Card, Serious Foul Play requires a Red Card)

Handling the ball

For the purposes of determining handball offences, the upper boundary of the arm is in line with the bottom of the armpit. Not every touch of a player's hand/arm with the ball is an offence.

It is an offence if a player:

- deliberately touches the ball with their hand/arm, for example moving the hand/arm towards the ball
- touches the ball with their hand/arm when it has made their body unnaturally bigger. A player is considered to have made their body unnaturally bigger when the position of their hand/arm is not a consequence of, or justifiable by, the player's body movement for that specific situation. By having their hand/arm in such a position, the player takes a risk of their hand/arm being hit by the ball and being penalised

- scores in the opponents' goal:
 - directly from their hand/arm, even if accidental, including by the goalkeeper
 - immediately after the ball has touched their hand/arm, even if accidental

The goalkeeper has the same restrictions on handling the ball as any other player outside the penalty area. If the goalkeeper handles the ball inside their penalty area when not permitted to do so, an indirect free kick is awarded but there is no disciplinary sanction. However, if the offence is playing the ball a second time (with or without the hand/arm) after a restart before it touches another player, the goalkeeper must be sanctioned if the offence stops a promising attack or denies an opponent or the opposing team a goal or an obvious goal-scoring opportunity.

Handling the ball involves a deliberate act of a player making contact with the ball with the hand or arm. The following must be considered:

- the movement of the hand towards the ball (not the ball towards the hand)
- the distance between the opponent and the ball (unexpected ball)
- the position of the hand does not necessarily mean that there is an infringement
- touching the ball with an object held in the hand (clothing, shin-guard, etc.) is an infringement
- hitting the ball with a thrown object (boot, shin-guard, etc.) is an infringement
- the movement of the hand or arm to make themselves unnaturally bigger so as to stop the ball
- the referee's opinion of the intent of the player to perform a deliberate act to make contact with the ball with the hand or arm versus an accidental non-intentional act.

(Throwing an object at the ball or hitting the ball with a held object are separate direct free kick offenses and not a form of handball.)

Where a handball affects the opponents it should be judged like a foul. For example, where a handball stops or interferes with a promising attack then it is a caution. If the handball denied an obvious goal scoring opportunity then it is a red card.

When a goalkeeper leaves their goal area, they are subject to all the rules of an ordinary player (i.e. they cannot handle the ball with their hands outside the goal area, cannot pass the ball back into their goal area and then run into handle the ball as goalkeeper, can be challenged for the ball, and can score from any point in the playing area).

3. Indirect Free Kick

An indirect free kick will be awarded to the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred if, in the opinion of the referee, a player:

- plays in a dangerous or out-of-control manner.
- impedes the progress of an opponent without making contact or deliberately obstructs an opponent when not playing or in possession of the ball.
- is guilty of dissent, using offensive, insulting or abusive language and/or gestures or other verbal offences
- prevents the goalkeeper from releasing the ball with his/her hands or kicks or attempts to kick the ball when the goalkeeper is in the process of releasing it
- initiates a deliberate trick for the ball to be passed (including from a free kick or goal kick) to the goalkeeper with the head, chest, knee etc. to circumvent the Law, whether or not the goalkeeper touches the ball with the hands; the goalkeeper is penalised if responsible for initiating the deliberate trick
- indulges in tactics which, in the opinion of the referee, are designed merely to delay the progression of the game, thus wasting time, and so give an unfair advantage to his/her own team
- commits any other offence not mentioned in the Laws for which play is stopped to caution or send-off a player

If a player commits an offence outside the field of play (ball in play) against someone from their own team (including a team official) it is an indirect free kick taken on the boundary line.

Penalty Area Rules

An indirect free kick is awarded if a goalkeeper, inside their penalty area, commits any of the following offences:

- touches the ball with the hand/arm after releasing it and before it has touched another player
- touches the ball with the hand/arm, unless the goalkeeper has clearly kicked or attempted to kick the ball to release it into play, after:
 - it has been deliberately kicked to the goalkeeper by a team-mate
 - receiving it directly from a throw-in taken by a team-mate

A goalkeeper may not control the ball with the hands for more than (8) eight seconds before releasing it. If a goalkeeper holds the ball for longer than eight seconds (with the referee using a visual five-second countdown with their hand), a corner kick will be awarded to the opposing team.

A goalkeeper is considered to be in control of the ball when:

- the ball is between the hands or between the hand and any surface (e.g. ground, own body) or by touching it with any part of the hands or arms except if the ball rebounds accidentally from the goalkeeper or the goalkeeper has made a save
- holding the ball in the outstretched open hand
- bouncing it on the ground or throwing it in the air

A goalkeeper cannot be challenged by an opponent when in control of the ball with the hands.

If the ball rebounds from the goalkeeper this does not prevent the goalkeeper handling the ball a second time even if the first attempt to catch/holds the ball was deliberate.

Player Safety

The safety of players is always of paramount importance and care must be taken to ensure, as much as possible, players do not endanger themselves or their opponents during the match. The referee should watch for situations where an intentional or unintentional act results in conditions that are dangerous to the person committing the act or to an opponent.

Playing in a Dangerous Manner

Playing in a dangerous manner is defined as any action that, while trying to play the ball, threatens injury to someone (including the player himself) and includes preventing a nearby opponent from playing the ball for fear of injury. Playing in a dangerous manner may involve no physical contact between the Players and is punished by an indirect free kick. Where physical contact is made or where there is a greater risk of injury that endangers the safety of an opponent then more serious disciplinary penalties (such as a caution or a sending-off) will be applied.

1. Slide Tackles (sliding in an attempt to play the ball while an opponent is playing it or is about to play it, except for the goalkeeper in his own goal area), are NOT allowed:

- a) If a player performs a slide tackle with NO contact with another player and presents no immediate risk to player safety (i.e. the act does NOT cause the other player to move out of the way in order not to be hurt), then an Indirect Free Kick will be given
- b) If a player performs a slide tackle WITH contact with another player, or that causes the other player to move out of the way for fear of injury, or performs any slide tackle that in the opinion of the Referee is reckless, then a Caution will be given
- c) Any slide tackle from behind or to the side, or any slide tackle with excessive force or with an apparent intent to injure, or with apparent disregard for other player's safety, will result in a Sending Off.
- d) Any slide tackles that is made as a two-footed lunge at an opponent is generally considered to endanger the safety of an opponent and is hence sanctioned as serious foul play, resulting in a sending-off. This is still the case even if the ball is won cleanly without touching an opponent.

2. Slide kicks (sliding on the ground to kick the ball) are NOT allowed:

- a) If a player performs a slide kick with NO contact to another player and no immediate risk to player safety (i.e. the act does NOT cause other players to move out of the way in order not to be hurt), then an Indirect Free Kick will be given
- b) If a player performs a slide kick that contacts another player or causes the other player to move out of the way for fear of injury, or any slide kick that in the opinion of the Referee is reckless, then a Caution will be given

- c) Any slide kick that involves contact with another player and is judged to be with excessive force, then a Sending Off will be given.

3. Playing the ball from the ground is NOT allowed:

- a) If a player plays the ball while lying on the ground or while having a hand/knee on the ground (applies to a player other than the goalkeeper), then an Indirect Free Kick will be given.
- b) Playing the ball from the ground and making contact with another player, or causing the other player to move out of the way for fear of injury, or in the opinion of the referee the action is reckless, will be given a Caution.

4. A scissors or bicycle kick is NOT allowed.

- a) A scissors or bicycle kick is not permissible as it is dangerous to nearby opponents and to the player and will result in an Indirect Free Kick.
- b) A scissors or bicycle kick and making contact with another player, or causing the other player to move out of the way for fear of injury, or in the opinion of the referee the action is reckless, will be given a Caution.

5. Kicking an opponent on the ground is NOT allowed.

- a) If a player kicks out towards an opponent who is on the ground with NO contact to that player and no immediate risk to player safety (i.e. the act does NOT cause other players to move out of the way in order not to be hurt), then the referee will stop play, allow the player to rise off the ground, and award an Indirect Free Kick
- b) If a player kicks out at an opponent on the ground in a manner that appears to be intentional, or makes contact with another player, or causes the other player to move out of the way for fear of injury, or in the opinion of the referee the action is reckless, will be given a Caution.
- c) If a player kicks out at an opponent on the ground and strikes their head, or the action is judged to be with excessive force, a Sending Off will be given.

Impeding the progress of an opponent without contact

This includes moving into the path of the opponent to obstruct, block, slow down or force a change of direction by an opponent when the ball is not within playing distance of either player.

All players have a right to their position on the field of play, being in the way of an opponent is not the same as moving into the way of an opponent.

A player may shield the ball by taking a position between an opponent and the ball if the ball is within playing distance and the opponent is not held off with the arms or body. If the ball is within playing distance, the player may be fairly challenged by an opponent.

4. Disciplinary Sanctions

The referee has the authority to take disciplinary action from entering the field of play for the pre-match inspection until leaving the field of play after the match ends (including Penalty shootouts).

Yellow and Red cards may be shown to players, substitutes or substituted players as well as coaches and team officials. The referee should show a Yellow or Red card to administer a caution or sending off. The Yellow card is used to communicate that a player, substitute or substituted player, coach or team official has been cautioned. The Red card is issued to communicate that a player, substitute or substituted player, coach or team official has been sent off.

If, before entering the field of play at the start of the match, a player, coach or team official commits a sending-off offence, the referee has the authority to prevent that person taking part in the match. The referee will report to the league any misconduct.

A player, coach or team official who commits a cautionable or sending-off offence, either on or off the field of play, against an opponent, a teammate, a match official, another team official or any other person, or an offence against the Laws of the Game, is to be disciplined according to the nature of the offence committed.

Yellow and Red cards may be shown to players, substitutes or substituted players as well as coaches and team officials.

The Yellow card is used to communicate that a player, substitute or substituted player, coach or team official has been cautioned. The Red card is issued to communicate that a player, substitute or substituted player, coach or team official has been sent off.

Referees should pay close attention to the nature of any infringement. Circumstances where a player intentionally violated a rule should be differentiated from situations where it is clearly not intentional, occurred while attempting to avoid an infraction or is an involuntary action. It is up to the discretion of the official as to whether the player will receive a verbal warning, Yellow card, or Red card, depending on the severity of the foul or misconduct.

Advantage

Refer to Law 5.4.

If the referee plays the advantage for an offence for which a caution/sending-off would have been issued had play been stopped, this caution/sending-off must be issued when the ball is next out of play.

- If the offence was denying the opposing team an obvious goal-scoring opportunity, the player is cautioned for unsporting behaviour whether or not a goal is scored;
- if the offence was interfering with or stopping a promising attack, the player is not cautioned.

Advantage should not be applied in situations involving serious foul play, violent conduct or a second cautionable offence unless there is a clear opportunity to score a goal. The referee must send off the player when the ball is next out of play, but if the player plays the ball or challenges/interferes with an opponent, the referee will stop play, send off the player and restart with an indirect free kick, unless the player committed a more serious offence.

a) Cautionable Offences

A player will be cautioned, shown the Yellow card if in the opinion of the referee, he commits any of the following infringements:

- delaying the restart of play
- shows by word or action, dissent from any decision given by the referee
- enters, re-enters or deliberately leaves the field of play after the game has commenced without the referees' permission
- failure to respect the required distance when play is restarted with a dropped ball, corner kick, throw-in, or free kick
- persistent infringement of the Laws of the Game (no specific number or pattern of offences constitutes "persistent")
- unsporting behavior

If a defender starts holding an attacker outside the penalty area and continues holding inside the penalty area, the referee must award a penalty kick.

A substitute or substituted player is cautioned if guilty of:

- delaying the restart of play
- dissent by word or action
- entering or re-entering the field of play without the referee's permission
- unsporting behaviour

When several offences occur at the same time, the most serious is penalised. Deciding which offence is the most serious will depend on:

- Disciplinary sanction – e.g. sending-off offence is more serious than a cautionable offence
- Restart – a direct free kick offence is more serious than an indirect free kick offence
- Nature of the foul – a foul tackle is more serious than handball or shirt pulling
- Tactical impact – an offence which stops an opponent's attack is more important than one which ends a player's own team attack

Where two separate cautionable offences are committed (even in close proximity), they should result in two cautions, for example if a player enters the field of play without the required permission and commits a reckless tackle or stops a promising attack with a foul/handball, etc.

Cautions for Unsporting Behaviour

There are different circumstances when a player must be cautioned for unsporting behaviour, shown the Yellow Card, e.g. if a player:

- attempts to deceive the referee by feigning injury or pretending to have been fouled (simulation)
- changes places with the goalkeeper during play or without the referee's permission (See Law 3)
- commits in a reckless manner a direct free kick offence
- handles the ball to interfere with or stop a promising attack, except where the referee awards a penalty kick for a non-deliberate handball offence
- denies the opposing team a goal or an obvious goal-scoring opportunity and the referee awards a penalty kick for a non-deliberate handball offence
- commits any other offence which interferes with or stops a promising attack except where the referee awards a penalty kick for an offence which was an attempt to play the ball or a challenge for the ball
- denies an opponent an obvious goal-scoring opportunity by committing an offence which was an attempt to play the ball or a challenge for the ball and the referee awards a penalty kick
- holds an opponent for the tactical purpose of pulling the opponent away from the ball or preventing the opponent from getting to the ball
- handles the ball in an attempt to score a goal (whether or not the attempt is successful) or in an unsuccessful attempt to prevent a goal (other than the goalkeeper)
- makes unauthorized marks on the field of play
- plays the ball when he is leaving the field of play after being granted permission to leave the field of play
- shows a lack of respect for the game
- initiates a deliberate trick for the ball to be passed (including from a free kick or goal kick) to the goalkeeper with the head, chest, knee etc. to circumvent the Law, whether or not the goalkeeper touches the ball with the hands; the goalkeeper is cautioned if responsible for initiating the deliberate trick
- verbally distracts an opponent during play or at a restart
- commits an illegal feigning or other infractions during the taking of a Penalty Kick
- engaging in play that is reckless or likely to cause an injury to oneself or an opponent.

Celebration of a goal

Players can celebrate when a goal is scored, but the celebration must not be excessive; choreographed celebrations are not encouraged and must not cause excessive time-wasting.

Leaving the field of play to celebrate a goal is not a cautionable offence but players should return as soon as possible.

A player must be cautioned, even if the goal is disallowed, for:

- climbing onto a perimeter fence and/or approaching the spectators in a manner which causes safety and/or security issues
- acting in a provocative, derisory or inflammatory way (referees are to be aware of taunting offenses)
- covering the head or face with a mask or other similar item
- removing the shirt or covering the head with the shirt

Delaying the restart of play

Referees must caution players who delay the restart of play by:

- appearing to take a throw-in but suddenly leaving it to a team-mate to take
- delaying leaving the field of play when being substituted
- excessively delaying a restart
- kicking or carrying the ball away, or provoking a confrontation by deliberately touching the ball after the referee has stopped play
- taking a free kick from the wrong position to force a retake

In addition to the caution, if the game is stopped to administer the penalty, and provided that the ball was in play at the time of the offense, an indirect free kick will be awarded to the opposing team from the point closest to the infringement.

Where two separate cautionable offences are committed in quick succession, both cautions must be issued; same principle if one is a sending off offence.

Delaying the restart of play to display a card.

Once the referee has decided to caution or send off a player, play must not be restarted until the sanction has been administered, unless the non-offending team takes a quick free kick, has a clear goal-scoring opportunity and the referee has not started the disciplinary sanction procedure. The sanction is administered at the next stoppage; if the offence was denying the opposing team an obvious goal-scoring opportunity, the player is cautioned; if the offence interfered with or stopped a promising attack, the player is not cautioned.

In addition to the caution, if the game is stopped to administer the penalty, and provided that the ball was in play at the time of the offense, an indirect free kick will be awarded to the opposing team from the point closest to the infringement.

b) Sending-off Offences

A player or a substitute will be shown the Red card and sent off, if in the opinion of the referee, he commits any of the following offences:

- denying the opposing team a goal or an obvious goal-scoring opportunity by committing a deliberate handball offence (except a goalkeeper within their penalty area)
- denying the opposing team a goal or an obvious goal-scoring opportunity by committing a non-deliberate handball offence outside their own penalty area
- denying a goal or an obvious goal-scoring opportunity to an opponent whose overall movement is towards the offender's goal by an offence punishable by a free kick (unless as outlined below)
- serious foul play
- biting or spitting at someone
- violent conduct
- using offensive, insulting or abusive language and/or action(s)
- receiving a second caution in the same match
- disrespectfully addressing or intentionally making contact with the game official
- taunting or fighting

(Players running across the field to contest referee decisions, arguing face-to-face with officials, and "visibly disrespectful" actions directed towards the referee will result in yellow cards. Red cards will be issued to players who confront officials and use insulting and/or offensive language or gestures towards them.)

Denying a goal or an obvious goal-scoring opportunity

Where a player denies the opposing team a goal or an obvious goal-scoring opportunity by a handball offence the player is sent off wherever the offence occurs (except a goalkeeper within their penalty area).

Where a player denies the opposing team a goal or an obvious goal-scoring opportunity by committing a deliberate handball offence, the player is sent off wherever the offence occurs (except a goalkeeper within their own penalty area).

Where a player denies the opposing team a goal or an obvious goal-scoring opportunity by committing a non-deliberate handball offence and the referee awards a penalty kick, the offender is cautioned.

A player, sent off player, substitute or substituted player who enters the field of play without the required referee's permission and interferes with play or an opponent and denies the opposing team a goal or an obvious goal-scoring opportunity is guilty of a sending-off offence.

The following must be considered:

- distance between the offence and the goal
- general direction of the play
- likelihood of keeping or gaining control of the ball
- location and number of defenders

When a denial of a goal-scoring opportunity offence is committed by a defender in the penalty area, the penalty kick effectively restores the goal-scoring opportunity so the punishment for the player should be less strong (e.g. a yellow card) than when the offence is committed outside the penalty area. However, when the offence is a handball or clearly not a genuine attempt to play or challenge for the ball, the player will be sent off.

Serious foul play

A tackle or challenge that endangers the safety of an opponent or uses excessive force or brutality must be sanctioned as serious foul play.

Any player who lunges at an opponent in challenging for the ball from the front, from the side or from behind using one or both legs, with excessive force or endangers the safety of an opponent is guilty of serious foul play.

Violent conduct

Violent conduct is when a player uses or attempts to use excessive force or brutality against an opponent when not challenging for the ball, or against a team-mate, team official, match official, spectator or any other person, regardless of whether contact is made.

In addition, a player who, when not challenging for the ball, deliberately strikes an opponent or any other person on the head or face with the hand or arm, is guilty of violent conduct unless the force used was negligible.

Swearing, offensive, insulting or abusive language or gestures

Under the IFAB's Laws of the Game, swearing in and of itself is not an offence. However, using "offensive, insulting or abusive language and/or gestures" is. Swearing is to be discouraged for all participants in the game of soccer. The following will apply:

- abusive, insulting, offensive language or gestures directed towards another player, coach, game official, or spectator will be punished by a sending off
- in the case of swearing, the referee must decide if the words are:
 - offensive, insulting or abusive = red card,
 - unsporting behaviour = yellow card,
 - or to be discouraged = warning but no card.

For example, swearing directed at another person is always a sending off. Cursing as part of an indirect disagreement (that call was fing stupid) would get a caution for dissent. Swearing in a loud voice which can be heard by others in the vicinity is a caution for unsporting behaviour. Swearing under your breath in frustration and not directed at anyone, could be a warning.

Recreational soccer is based on the values of fairness, respect and good sporting behaviours. Public swearing does not reflect those values and can create a hostile, threatening environment for players which is in violation of our Code of Conduct.

Public swearing is defined as the use of language by players or team officials containing swear words which is audible to people present on or in the vicinity of the field of play but which does not rise to the level of offensive, abusive and/or insulting language.

In terms of public swearing referees should pay attention to the actual words spoken, the emotional intent of the outburst and the offending nature of the language used. For example, public swearing using obscene, vulgar, sexual words that could be perceived to be homophobic or discriminatory should be dealt with harshly as they could be perceived by some as offensive.

Referees are instructed to act upon all instances of public swearing by players or team officials in the following manner:

- For low level public swearing (in-audibility and/or content), the referee should have a quiet word with the player or coach asking them to desist.
- For medium level public swearing (increased audibility and/or content), the referee should issue a public warning to the player or team official. The referee must wait until the ball is out of play before issuing the warning.
- For high level public swearing (increased audibility and/or content but falling short of offensive, abusive and/or insulting language), the referee should caution the player or team official for unsporting behaviour.

Any loud high level public obscenity that is disruptive to play is against the “spirit” of our law to promote a respectful and good sporting game and will be punished by a red card.

Referees retain some discretion in the application of these instructions in instances where there are mitigating circumstances including, but not limited to, an injury or self-directed swearing.

Referees are also instructed to act upon players or team officials who repeatedly engage in public swearing. The instructions above can be interpreted as an ascending scale of action in the case of repeat offenders but, at the same time, should not also be interpreted towards excusing first instances of public swearing or avoiding to take appropriate action.

Repeatedly having quiet words with a repeat offender means that those quiet words are not having the desired effect and, therefore, not resolving the problem of public swearing that the ascending scale of action is intended to resolve.

Referees who intend to caution a player or team official for engaging in high level (or repeated) public swearing must be able to identify the offending individual. Referees who have heard public swearing but cannot identify the offending individual are advised to take alternative measures in addressing public swearing (such as a warning to the individuals in the immediate vicinity or the entire team bench).

Referees should consider the significant threshold level at which the behaviour of a team official, in relation to public swearing and apart from the use of offensive, abusive and/or insulting language, warrants his or her dismissal from the technical area. Referees who dismiss a team official from the technical area for their irresponsible behaviour must report that dismissal and the nature of their actions by submitting a discipline report to the league.

Sanctions to the sent-off player:

- the sent-off player must leave the field of play for the remainder of the game
- the sent-off player may not stand with his/her team mates in the team’s technical area or sit with the spectators
- the sent-off player is required to leave the vicinity of the field of play and may not return even after the game is completed
- any participant who has been ejected from the game, and who has left the vicinity of the field of play and who then returns to the field of play or vicinity for any reason shall be subject to further discipline. The vicinity of the field of play is anyplace where the ejected participant can interact with game participants in any manner including but not limited to shouting.
- if a sent-off player attempts to continue misconduct with players, coaches, match officials or spectators near the field of play or in an adjoining parking lot, they will be referred to the League Discipline Committee.

Offences where an object (or the ball) is thrown

In all cases, the referee takes the appropriate disciplinary action:

- reckless – caution the offender for unsporting behaviour
- using excessive force – send off the offender for violent conduct.

If, before a game has commenced a player commits a sending-off offense and is prevented from taking part in the game, the penalized team will not be required to play short for the remainder of the game. A player receiving a Red card during the game will be required to leave the field and will not be substituted for during the game. The penalized team plays 1 player short for the remainder of the game. A Red carded player will also be suspended for the next game and further disciplinary sanctions may be issued by the league. A red-carded player will not be allowed to attend their team's next or subsequent games while under suspension.

Restart of play after fouls and misconduct

If the ball is out of play, play is restarted according to the previous decision

If the ball is in play and a player commits an offence inside the field of play against:

- an opponent – indirect or direct free kick or penalty kick
- a team-mate, substitute, substituted or sent off player, team official or a match official – a direct free kick or penalty kick

All verbal offences are penalized with an indirect free kick.

If the referee stops play for an offence committed by a player, inside or outside the field of play, against an outside agent, play is restarted with a dropped ball unless an indirect free kick is awarded for leaving the field of play without the referee's permission; the indirect free kick is taken from the point on the boundary line where the player left the field of play.

If, when the ball is in play:

- a player commits an offence against a match official or an opposing player, substitute, substituted or sent off player, or team official outside the field of play or
- a substitute, substituted or sent off player, or team official commits an offence against, or interferes with, an opposing player or match official outside the field of play,
- play is restarted with a free kick on the boundary line nearest to where the offence/interference occurred; a penalty kick is awarded if this is a direct free kick offence within the offender's penalty area.

If an offence is committed outside the field of play by a player against a player, substitute, substituted player or team official of their own team, play is restarted with an indirect free kick on the boundary line closest to where the offence occurred.

If a player makes contact with the ball with an object (boot, shinguard etc.) held in the hand, play is restarted with a direct free kick (or penalty kick).

If a player who is on or off the field of play throws or kicks an object (other than the match ball) at an opposing player, or throws or kicks an object (including a ball) at an opposing substitute, substituted or sent-off player, team official, or a match official or the match ball, play is restarted with a direct free kick from the position where the object struck or would have struck the person or the ball. If this position is off the field of play, the free kick is taken on the nearest point on the boundary line; a penalty kick is awarded if this is within the offender's penalty area.

If a substitute, substituted or sent-off player, player temporarily off the field of play or team official throws or kicks an object onto the field of play and it interferes with play, an opponent or match official, play is restarted with a direct free kick (or penalty kick) where the object interfered with play or struck or would have struck the opponent, match official or the ball.

5. Other Participant Infractions

a) Coach and Team Official Infractions

Coach and Team Officials are expected to be models of positive behaviour to their players and spectators.

Team officials

Where an offence is committed by someone from the technical area (substitute, substituted player, other team officials) and the offender cannot be identified, the senior team coach present in the technical area will receive the sanction. The senior team coach present cannot be sanctioned for an offence committed by an unidentified player on the field of play.

Warning

The following offences should usually result in a warning; repeated or blatant offences should result in a caution or sending-off:

- entering the field of play in a respectful/non-confrontational manner
- failing to cooperate with a match official e.g. ignoring an instruction/request from an assistant referee or other match official
- minor/low-level disagreement (by word or action) with a decision
- occasionally leaving the confines of the technical area without committing another offence

Caution

A coach or team official will be shown the Yellow card, if in the opinion of the referee, he commits any of the following offences. Caution offences include (but are not limited to):

- clearly/persistently not respecting the confines of their team's technical area
- delaying the restart of play by their team
- deliberately entering the technical area of the opposing team (non-confrontational)
- dissent by word or action including:
 - throwing/kicking drinks bottles or other objects
 - action(s) which show(s) a clear lack of respect for the match official(s) e.g. sarcastic clapping
- excessively/persistently gesturing for a red or yellow card
- gesturing or acting in a provocative or inflammatory manner
- persistent unacceptable behaviour (including repeated warning offences)
- showing a lack of respect for the game
- unsporting behaviour
- encouraging a player to violate the Laws of the Game or attempting to create an unfair advantage for their players by behaviour that violates the Laws of the Game
- failing to correct or control the behaviour of their players
- failing to correct or control the behaviour of parents, spectators and team supporters when requested by the referee
- failing to give all players the opportunity to play equal time
- enters the field of play after the game has commenced or during a stoppage of play without the referees' permission

Sending-off

A coach or team official will be shown the Red card and sent off, if in the opinion of the referee, he commits any of the following offences. Sending-off offences include (but are not limited to):

- delaying the restart of play by the opposing team e.g. holding onto the ball, kicking the ball away, obstructing the movement of a player
- deliberately leaving the technical area to:
 - show dissent towards, or remonstrate with, a match official
 - act in a provocative or inflammatory manner
- entering the opposing technical area in an aggressive or confrontational manner
- deliberately throwing/kicking an object onto the field of play
 - entering the field of play to confront a match official (including at half-time and full-time), or to interfere with play, an opposing player or a match official
- physical or aggressive behaviour (including spitting or biting) towards an opposing player, substitute, team official, match official, spectator or any other person (e.g. other match official, security or league official etc.)
- interfering with an opposing player by entering the field of play or obstructing them from the technical area

- using offensive, insulting or abusive language and/or action(s)
- using unauthorised electronic or communication equipment and/or behaving in an inappropriate manner as a result of using electronic or communication equipment
- violent conduct
- intentionally making contact with the game official
- taunting or fighting
- persistent dissent by words or actions to the referee
- persisting in misconduct after receiving a caution
- receiving a second caution in the same match

Use of abusive language and/or profanity by a coach or team official will not be tolerated. Offensive or insulting or abusive language and/or gestures will be penalized by the coach or team official being suspended for the remainder of the game.

Sanctions to the sent-off coach or team official:

- The sent-off coach or team official must leave the field of play for the remainder of the game and is required to leave the vicinity of the field of play.
- The sent-off coach or team official may not stand with his players in the team's technical area or sit in the stands with the spectators.
- The sent-off coach or team official is required to leave the vicinity of the field of play and may not return even after the game is completed. Any participant who has been ejected from the game, and who has left the vicinity of the field of play and who returns to the vicinity for any reason shall be subject to further discipline. The vicinity of the field of play is anyplace where the ejected participant can interact with game participants in any manner including but not limited to shouting.
- If a sent-off coach or team official attempts to continue misconduct with players, coaches, match officials or spectators in the parking lot, they will be referred to the League Discipline Committee.

If there is not a second coach or team official at the team bench to assume coaching responsibilities, the referee may ask for a parent to come to the bench and assume coaching duties for the remainder of the game. If no-one is available to assume the coaching responsibilities then the game will be suspended.

Coach and team officials sent-off with a red card will be automatically suspended from their team's next match. They will be referred to the League Disciplinary Committee for further review.

b) Spectator Infractions

Regina Inter-Zone Soccer encourages good sporting behaviours and team spirit. Cheering and praise of players and their accomplishments are encouraged. Booing, taunting, harassment, swearing or any other negative activity is not tolerated. Spectators, parents and team supporters are not to criticize game officials at any time and shall encourage good sporting behaviours towards all.

The league will not tolerate coaches, spectators or other persons committing acts of misconduct, harassment, verbal abuse, foul language, or abuse of the referee or any other game participant.

Referees have the authority to stop a game to discuss with coaches any improper behaviour taking place on or off the playing area and to request the coach's assistance to resolve problems, warn offenders and if necessary to direct offenders to leave the vicinity of the playing area. If the offender persists in these actions the referee will direct the game to be suspended.

The referee can ask any coach, team official, parent, team supporter, or spectator arguing with, or disrespecting the referee, causing disruption to the game, using offensive or insulting or abusive language and/or gestures, or engaged in physical abuse or acts of sexual harassment to leave the vicinity of the field of play. Referees will record the names of any spectators directed to leave the vicinity of the field of play and report this to the league.

All instances of serious spectator misconduct must be reported to the league for further discipline. Coaches are required to assist referees in dealing with unruly spectators.

e) Further Disciplinary Sanctions

During the season players that are sent off with a Red card will be automatically suspended from their team's next match. During this one game suspension the player is not to attend the game.

Each incident where a player receives a Red Card in a tournament will be reviewed by the League Executive. The Red Carded player may be allowed to return for the next game, as decided by the Tournament Officials based on consultation with the Referee. Players ejected for violent play, abusive behaviour or serious foul play will not be allowed to return for the next game.

During a tournament any player dismissed twice (shown two Red Cards) will take no further part in said tournament.

Referees will report all Red Card offences to the League Referee Coordinator/Discipline Committee. A copy of the referee report will also be sent to the Zone Coordinator for their consideration of further disciplinary sanctions. A player who receives two Red Cards in a season will be reviewed by the Discipline Committee and further disciplinary sanctions may be levied. Further disciplinary sanctions could include multiple-game or entire season suspensions.

Two players and/or coaches (including substitutes, substituted players, team officials) being ejected from the same team in one game will result in a default loss to the offending team. When this occurs, the referee will terminate the game at that point and require teams to leave the field of play. The referee will submit a report to the Discipline Committee.

The referee will report, to the appropriate authority, any misconduct by players, coaches, spectators or other persons which takes place on the field of play or within its vicinity at any time prior to, during, or after the game.

The League Referee Coordinator/Discipline Committee will review all incidences of serious player, coach or spectator misconduct.

The referee will report, to the appropriate authority, any misconduct by players, coaches, spectators or other persons which takes place on the field of play or within its vicinity at any time prior to, during, or after the game.

The League Discipline Committee will review all incidences of coach or spectator misconduct. If serious problems arise or repeated incidents of misconduct over the season occur, the League reserves the right to issue further sanctions against the offending individual or family, which may include suspension from further involvement in Regina Inter-zone activities or refusal to allow the family to take part in further soccer activity for the balance of the current year and the next soccer season. These sanctions will be communicated to other zone soccer associations.

LAW 13: THE FREE KICK:

1. Types of Free Kicks. Direct and indirect free kicks are awarded to the opposing team of a player, substitute, substituted or sent-off player, or team official guilty of an offence.
 - Direct Free Kick - goal can be scored directly from the kicker
 - Indirect Free Kick - goal cannot be scored unless the ball is touched by another player before entering the goal

Indirect free kick signal

The referee indicates an indirect free kick by raising the arm above the head; this signal is maintained until the kick has been taken and the ball touches another player, goes out of play or it is clear that a goal cannot be scored directly.

An indirect free kick must be retaken if the referee fails to signal that the kick is indirect and the ball is kicked directly into the goal. (Referees should signal quickly when awarding an Indirect free kick so as not to restrain teams from playing the ball quickly.)

If a Ball enters the goal

- if a direct free kick is kicked directly into the opponents' goal, a goal is awarded
- if an indirect free kick is kicked directly into the opponents' goal, a goal kick is awarded
- if a direct or indirect free kick is kicked directly into the team's own goal, a corner kick is awarded

2. Procedure:

All free kicks are taken from the place where the offence occurred, except:

- indirect free kicks to the attacking team for an offence inside the opponents' goal area are taken from the nearest point on the goal area line which runs parallel to the goal line
- free kicks to the defending team in their goal area may be taken from anywhere in that area
- free kicks for offences involving a player entering, re-entering or leaving the field of play without permission are taken from the position of the ball when play was stopped. However, if a player commits an offence off the field of play, play is restarted with a free kick taken on the boundary line nearest to where the offence occurred; for direct free kick offences, a penalty kick is awarded if this is within the offender's penalty area
- where the Law designates another position (see Laws 3, 11, 12)

The ball:

- must be stationary and the kicker must not touch the ball again until it has touched another player
- is in play when it is kicked and clearly moves

Until the ball is in play, all opponents must remain:

- at least 9.15 m (10 yds) from the ball, unless they are on their own goal line between the goalposts
- outside the penalty area for free kicks inside the opponents' penalty area

Where three or more defending team players form a 'wall', all attacking team players must remain at least 1 m (1 yd) from the 'wall' until the ball is in play.

A free kick can be taken by lifting the ball with a foot or both feet simultaneously.

Feinting to take a free kick to confuse opponents is permitted as part of football.

If a player, while correctly taking a free kick, deliberately kicks the ball at an opponent in order to play the ball again but not in a careless or reckless manner or using excessive force, the referee allows play to continue.

The non-offending team has the right to put the ball in play before a player from the other team has retired the full distance or they may request the referee to ensure the required distance is given by instructing players to move back or by marking out the required distance on the playing area. Players are encouraged to put the ball in play as quickly as possible.

3. Ball enters the goal

- if a direct free kick is kicked directly into the opponents' goal, a goal is awarded
- if an indirect free kick is kicked directly into the opponents' goal, a goal kick is awarded
- if a direct or indirect free kick is kicked directly into the team's own goal, a corner kick is awarded
- if an indirect kick is kicked and subsequently touches another player (including the goalkeeper) before it enters the goal, then a goal is awarded.

4. Offences and Sanctions.

- If, when a free kick is taken, an opponent is closer to the ball than the required distance, the kick is retaken unless the advantage can be applied; but if a player takes a free kick quickly and an opponent who is less than 9.15 m (10 yds) from the ball intercepts it, the referee allows play to continue. However, an opponent who deliberately prevents a free kick being taken quickly must be cautioned for delaying the restart of play.
- If, when a free kick is taken, an attacking team player is less than 1 m (1 yd) from a 'wall' formed by three or more defending team players, an indirect free kick is awarded.

- If, when a free kick is taken by the defending team inside its penalty area, any opponents are inside the penalty area because they did not have time to leave, the referee allows play to continue.
- If an opponent who is in the penalty area when the free kick is taken, or enters the penalty area before the ball is in play, touches or challenges for the ball before it is in play, the free kick is retaken.
- If, after the ball is in play, the kicker touches the ball again before it has touched another player an indirect free kick is awarded; if the kicker commits a handball offence:
 - a direct free kick is awarded
 - a penalty kick is awarded if the offence occurred inside the kicker's penalty area unless the kicker was the goalkeeper in which case an indirect free kick is awarded

LAW 14: THE PENALTY KICK:

1. Penalty Kick. A penalty kick is awarded if a player commits a direct free kick offence inside their penalty area or off the field as part of play as outlined in Laws 12 and 13. A goal may be scored directly from a penalty kick.

2. Procedure

- The ball must be stationary, with part of the ball touching or overhanging the centre of the penalty mark, and the goalposts, crossbar and goal net must not be moving.
- The player taking the penalty kick must be clearly identified.
- The defending goalkeeper must remain on the goal line, facing the kicker, between the goalposts, without touching the goalposts, crossbar or goal net, until the ball has been kicked. The goalkeeper must not behave in a way that unfairly distracts the kicker, e.g. delay the taking of the kick or touch the goal posts, crossbar or goal net.
- The players other than the kicker and goalkeeper must be:
 - at least 9.15 m (10 yds) from the penalty mark
 - behind the penalty mark
 - inside the field of play
 - outside the penalty area
- After the players have taken positions in accordance with this Law, the referee signals for the penalty kick to be taken.
- The player taking the penalty kick must kick the ball forward; backheeling is permitted provided the ball moves forward.
- When the ball is kicked, the defending goalkeeper must have at least part of one foot touching, or behind, the goal line.
- The ball is in play when it is kicked and clearly moves.
- The kicker must not play the ball again until it has touched another player.
- The penalty kick is completed when the ball stops moving, goes out of play, a goal is scored, or the referee stops play for any offence.
- Players may move towards the net as soon as the ball is touched by the kicker in the pursuit of any rebounds from the goalkeeper, crossbar, goal posts or end wall. The ball is still live after a rebound from the goalkeeper, crossbar, goal posts, or end wall. Players, other than the kicker as a second touch of the ball, can play the ball on the rebound.)
- Additional time is allowed for a penalty kick to be taken and completed at the end of each half of the match or extra time. When additional time is allowed, the penalty kick is completed when, after the kick has been taken, the ball stops moving, goes out of play, is played by any player (including the kicker) other than the defending goalkeeper, a goal is scored, or the referee stops play for an offence by the kicker or the kicker's team. The ball is DEAD after a rebound from the goalkeeper, crossbar or goal post. If a defending team player (including the goalkeeper) commits an offence and the penalty is missed/saved, the penalty is retaken.

3. Offences and sanctions

A player's kick will be forfeited (not scored) if the player kicks the ball before the referee signals for the kick to be taken. Once the referee has signalled for a penalty kick to be taken, the kick must be taken; if it is not taken the referee may take disciplinary action before signalling again for the kick to be taken.

If, before the ball is in play, one of the following occurs:

➤ a team-mate of the player taking the penalty kick is penalised for encroachment only if:

- the encroachment clearly impacted on the goalkeeper; or
- the encroaching player plays the ball or challenges an opponent for the ball and then scores, attempts to score or creates a goal-scoring opportunity

➤ a team-mate of the goalkeeper is penalised for encroachment only if:

- the encroachment clearly impacted on the kicker; or
- the encroaching player plays the ball or challenges an opponent for the ball and this prevents the opponents from scoring, attempting to score or creating a goal-scoring opportunity

➤ the player taking the penalty kick or a team-mate offends:

- if the ball enters the goal, the kick is retaken
- if the ball does not enter the goal, the referee stops play and restarts with an indirect free kick except for the following when play will be stopped and restarted with an indirect free kick, regardless of whether or not a goal is scored:

- a penalty kick is kicked backwards
- a team-mate of the identified kicker takes the kick; the referee cautions the player who took the kick
- feinting to kick the ball once the kicker has completed the run-up (feinting in the run-up is permitted); the referee cautions the kicker

➤ the goalkeeper offends:

- if the ball enters the goal, a goal is awarded
- if the ball misses the goal or rebounds from the crossbar or goalpost(s), the kick is only retaken if the goalkeeper's offence clearly impacted on the kicker
- if the ball is prevented from entering the goal by the goalkeeper, the kick is retaken

If the goalkeeper's offence results in the kick being retaken, the goalkeeper is warned for the first offence in the game and cautioned for any subsequent offence(s) in the game

➤ a team-mate of the goalkeeper offends:

- if the ball enters the goal, a goal is awarded
- if the ball does not enter the goal, the kick is retaken

➤ a player of both teams offends, the kick is retaken unless a player commits a more serious offence (e.g. 'illegal' feinting)

➤ both the goalkeeper and the kicker commit an offence at the same time, the kicker is cautioned and play restarts with an indirect free kick to the defending team (*See explanation below the Summary of PK Infractions.)

If, after the penalty kick has been taken:

- the kicker touches the ball again before it has touched another player:
 - an indirect free kick (or direct free kick for a handball offence) is awarded
- the ball is touched by an outside agent as it moves forward:
 - the kick is retaken unless the ball is going into the goal and the interference does not prevent the goalkeeper or a defending player playing the ball, in which case the goal is awarded if the ball enters the goal (even if contact was made with the ball) unless the interference was by the attacking team
- the ball rebounds into the field of play from the goalkeeper, the crossbar or the goalposts and is then touched by an outside agent:
 - the referee stops play
 - play is restarted with a dropped ball at the position where it touched the outside agent

Summary of Penalty Kick Infractions

| | Outcome of the Kick | |
|---|---|---|
| | Is a Goal | Is no Goal |
| Encroachment by Attacking Player | Impact: penalty is retaken No impact: goal | Impact: indirect free kick No impact: no retake |
| Encroachment by Defending Player | Impact: goal No impact: goal | Impact: penalty is retaken No impact: no retake |
| Encroachment by both Attacking and Defending Players | Impact: penalty is retaken No impact: goal | Impact: penalty is retaken No impact: no retake |
| Offence by Goalkeeper | Goal | Not saved: penalty is not retaken (unless kicker is clearly impacted) Saved: penalty is retaken and warning for goalkeeper; caution for any further offence(s) |
| Goalkeeper and kicker offend at the same time | No goal. Indirect free kick and caution for kicker (*See explanation below on offences) | Indirect free kick and caution for kicker. (*See explanation below on offences) |
| Ball kicked backwards | No goal. Indirect free kick | Indirect free kick |
| Illegal feinting | No goal. Indirect free kick; caution for kicker | Indirect free kick; caution for kicker |
| Wrong kicker | No goal. Indirect free kick; caution for wrong kicker | Indirect free kick; caution for wrong kicker |

*From IFAB. If both the Goalkeeper and the Kicker commit at the same time offences that would be Yellow Card offences then both would receive Yellow Cards. If the Kicker has offended with a Yellow Card offence and the Goalkeeper's offence is not punished by a Yellow Card, then the Kicker's Yellow Card offence is judged to be more serious than the Goalkeeper's offence and the Kicker is penalized. The Law states that if there are two offences at the same time then the more serious of them is penalized.

LAW 15: THE THROW-IN:

- 1. Throw-in. A throw-in is awarded to the opponents of the player who last touched the ball when the whole of the ball passes over the touchline, on the ground or in the air.

A goal cannot be scored directly from a throw-in:

- if the ball enters the opponents' goal – a goal kick is awarded
- if the ball enters the thrower's goal – a corner kick is awarded

- 2. Procedure:

At the moment of delivering the ball, the thrower must:

- stand facing the field of play
- have part of each foot on the touchline or on the ground outside the touchline
- throw the ball with both hands from behind and over the head from the point where it left the field of play

All opponents must stand at least 2 m (2 yds) from the point on the touchline where the throw-in is to be taken.

The ball is in play when it enters the field of play. If the ball touches the ground before entering, the throw-in is retaken by the same team from the same position. If the throw-in is not taken correctly, it is retaken by the opposing team.

If a player, while correctly taking a throw-in, deliberately throws the ball at an opponent in order to play the ball again but not in a careless or a reckless manner or using excessive force, the referee allows play to continue.

The thrower must not touch the ball again until it has touched another player.

3. Offences and Sanctions:

If, after the ball is in play, the thrower touches the ball again before it has touched another player, an indirect free kick is awarded; if the thrower commits a handball offence:

- a direct free kick is awarded
- a penalty kick is awarded if the offence occurred inside the thrower's penalty area unless the ball was handled by the defending team's goalkeeper, in which case an indirect free kick is awarded

An opponent who unfairly distracts or impedes the thrower (including moving closer than 2m (2yds) to the place where the throw-in is to be taken) is cautioned for unsporting behaviour, and if the throw-in has been taken, an indirect free kick is awarded.

For any other offence, the throw-in is taken by a player of the opposing team.

LAW 16: THE GOAL KICK:

1. Goal Kick. A goal kick is awarded when the whole of the ball passes over the goal line, on the ground or in the air, having last touched a player of the attacking team, and a goal is not scored.

A goal may be scored directly from a goal kick, but only against the opposing team; if the ball directly enters the kicker's goal, a corner kick is awarded to the opponents.

2. Procedure:

- The ball must be stationary and is kicked from any point within the goal area by a player of the defending team
- The ball is in play when it is kicked and clearly moves
- Opponents must be outside the penalty area until the ball is in play

3. Offences and Sanctions

If, after the ball is in play, the kicker touches the ball again before it has touched another player, an indirect free kick is awarded; if the kicker commits a handball offence:

- a direct free kick is awarded
- a penalty kick is awarded if the offence occurred inside the kicker's penalty area, unless the kicker was the goalkeeper, in which case an indirect free kick is awarded

If, when a goal kick is taken, any opponents are inside the penalty area because they did not have time to leave, the referee allows play to continue. If an opponent who is in the penalty area when the goal kick is taken, or enters the penalty area before the ball is in play, touches or challenges for the ball before it is in play, the goal kick is retaken.

If a player enters the penalty area before the ball is in play and fouls or is fouled by an opponent, the goal kick is retaken and the offender may be cautioned or sent off, depending on the offence.

For any other offence, the kick is retaken.

LAW 17: THE CORNER KICK:

1. Corner Kick. A corner kick is awarded when the whole of the ball passes over the goal line, on the ground or in the air, having last touched a player of the defending team, and a goal is not scored.

A goal may be scored directly from a corner kick, but only against the opposing team; if the ball directly enters the kicker's goal a corner kick is awarded to the opponents.

2. Procedure:

- The ball must be placed in the corner area nearest to the point where the ball passed over the goal line
- The ball must be stationary and is kicked by a player of the attacking team
- The ball is in play when it is kicked and clearly moves; it does not need to leave the corner area
- The corner flagpost must not be moved
- Opponents must remain at least 9.15 m (10 yds) from the corner arc until the ball is in play

3. Offences and sanctions

If, after the ball is in play, the kicker touches the ball again before it has touched another player, an indirect free kick is awarded; if the kicker commits a handball offence:

- a direct free kick is awarded
- a penalty kick is awarded if the offence occurred inside the kicker's penalty area, unless the kicker was the goalkeeper, in which case an indirect free kick is awarded

If a player, while correctly taking a corner kick, deliberately kicks the ball at an opponent in order to play the ball again but not in a careless or reckless manner or using excessive force, the referee allows play to continue.

For any other offence, the kick is retaken.

Tournament Rules which differ from League Play

Eligible Players - Only players listed on the team rosters are allowed to play. Teams must have a team roster with them for each game.

Equipment Check - At the start of each game, the referee will check the player's equipment for eligibility.

Bad Weather - Discretion will be left to the Tournament Organizers and the coaches at the field, as to whether the game should be shortened. The Tournament Organizers will make all decisions regarding cancellation of games.

Game Start Time - All games will start at the scheduled time, unless held up due to an extended game (overtime or shootout). A parent or coach should go to the next field to advise the opposition coach. Otherwise, teams should be at the field 15 minutes before game time.

Team Not Ready to Start - If a team is not ready to play at the scheduled time, one goal will be awarded to the opposition for each 5 minute delay or portion thereof. The time lost will be deducted from the playing time. After 10 minutes, the game is forfeited by the team without enough players or refuses to play.

Overtime - The Tournament instructions will outline the format to be used for all overtime periods. Normally overtime consists of one 5 minute period with a "Golden Goal" or sudden-death format where the first goal scored ends the match. This information will be provided prior to the tournament.

Shootout – Shootouts will be conducted in accordance with Law 10 unless tournament instructions specify otherwise.

Red Card - Each incident where a player receives a Red Card will be reviewed by the League Executive. The Red Carded player may be allowed to return for the next game, as decided by the Tournament Officials based on consultation with the Referee. Players ejected for violent or serious foul play will not be allowed to return for the next game.

DISPUTES ARE TO BE RESOLVED IN FAVOUR OF THE PLAYERS!

Any complaints concerning the wording of the rules, actions of an opposing coach, intoxication of any coach or any other problems are to be submitted in writing and emailed to the West Zone Community Soccer Association within 2 days of the incident to allow the Board to take any necessary investigative action.

Concerns can be emailed through our website <http://www.rwzcsa.ca/> or sent to info@rwzcsa.ca

For participants of the other zones of Inter-Zone, please contact your respective Zone representatives.

Complaints through social media will not be acknowledged. Contact us with your concerns so that they can be investigated and responded to. Please provide your full name and contact information so that we may contact you for further information or to respond to your concerns.

We recommend a 24-hour "cooling-off" period as the heat-of-the-moment may influence the tone and content of the conversation. Please be as constructive in your comments as possible. Remember that our goal is to contribute to the betterment of the soccer experience for everyone.

THE CODE OF CONDUCT

All players, coaches, league officials, referees, parents and spectators must comply with the following code of conduct. Remember the goal of community soccer is to have fun, learn some soccer and team skills, and enjoy the soccer experience. All the coaches and league officials are volunteers.

We want the children and youth who take part in our league to play soccer in a positive atmosphere free from foul and abusive language, undue pressure, embarrassment, harassment, prejudice and violence.

Please help us to achieve this aim by abiding by this simple code:

PLAY FAIR AND WITH RESPECT

- Do not violate the rules to gain an unfair advantage.
- Foul or abusive language from players, coaches, parents or spectators will not be tolerated.
- Violent or over-aggressive play will not be tolerated.
- Never dispute a referee's decision - they are seeing the action from a different angle than you are and they can make mistakes, just like anyone.
- The health and safety of players is paramount. Do not encourage players to continue playing if they are obviously injured or unwell. Do not encourage players to cause injury to other players.
- Coaches must give all of their players an equal amount of playing time during all game periods including overtime, and the opportunity to participate in the shootout. It's no fun being on the sideline.
- Coaches, parents and spectators are expected to let all players play without being screamed and shouted at from the sidelines.
- Encourage and applaud all players, not just those on your team.
- Demonstrate respect for team-mates, coaches, referees and league officials.
- Respect the facilities in which you play.
- Maintain self-control at all times – it is only a game!!
- Always attempt to contribute to the betterment of the soccer experience for everyone.
- Respect your opponents at all times. Players and teams should always be humble in victory and gracious in defeat. Do not run up the score against a weaker opponent.

REMEMBER!!!

Your evaluation carries a great deal of weight with children. At the games, the attitude shown by parents and coaches towards your team and the opposing team will influence the child's values and behaviour in sports, and in life.

CHEERING AND PRAISE IS ENCOURAGED! NEGATIVE CRITICISM SHOUTED FROM SIDELINES IS DISCOURAGED!

Coaches, team officials and parents shall not criticize game officials at any time and shall encourage the same attitude amongst all players and fans.
